

Michigan Commission on Law Enforcement Standards

December 28, 2001

Dear Agency Head or Training Director:

The Michigan Commission on Law Enforcement Standards is pleased to provide you with this updated catalog of training materials available through the Law Enforcement Resource Center. This catalog lists over 900 titles, which are available to you, free of charge. This service is part of the comprehensive services, which the Michigan Commission on Law Enforcement Standards provides to law enforcement in Michigan.

Since 1983, the Law Enforcement Resource Center has been able to collect training programs using the financial resources of the Michigan Justice Training Commission. Under the provisions of Governor John Engler's Executive Order 2001-5, the Justice Training Commission and the Commission on Law Enforcement Standards are now one entity served by a new 15-member board. Please be assured that it is our intent to continue to provide services such as this to the law enforcement community.

The new Commission encourages your active participation in using these resources for training Michigan's law enforcement officers. Please share this manual with the individuals in your agency who are responsible for providing or coordinating training.

If we may be of any further assistance to you, please do not hesitate to call the Resource Center at (517) 322-5624.

Sincerely,

This AUDIOVISUAL TRAINING MATERIALS CATALOG is being sent to your department as a resource to enhance or renew your current training levels. It has been produced in such a format that you may copy it as often as needed for your staff. In addition to this printed catalog, it is also available on our website located at www.mcoles.org.

Please review the first few pages of the catalog, which outline our policies and the proper borrowing procedures. Most programs are scheduled in advance for planned training sessions; therefore, it is imperative that you promptly return all borrowed materials by the due date so that others may use them as scheduled. We require all borrowed material to be returned to us by U.P.S. or First Class Insured mail to ensure a safe return. For the best service, programs should be ordered at least seven business days in advance.

Please be sure to complete the PROGRAM USAGE AND COMMENTS form included with each training program. We require you to report the number of trainees or officers that viewed each program for statistical purposes. Your cooperation enables us to expand our collection and continue to service your requests.

The Resource Center continues to seek volunteers to evaluate training materials received on a preview basis from our vendors. We also encourage suggestions for training resources that you feel would be an asset to our training collection. Forms are located within our website and also available upon request for these purposes. Please contact us if you are interested in assisting us in either of these ways.

Again, please share this valuable resource with your staff by making as many copies as you need or visit us online at www.mcoles.org.

THE LAW ENFORCEMENT RESOURCE CENTER

The Resource Center provides law enforcement training programs free of charge to eligible law enforcement agencies throughout the state of Michigan. In this way, it serves as a central repository for law enforcement training materials to supplement criminal justice training.

The Law Enforcement Resource Center is funded, in part, through P.A. 302 of 1982, as amended. These funds permit the Resource Center to update and expand the number of programs available to borrowers. Hopefully this source of funding will allow the Center to continue to grow and meet your ever changing training needs.

We welcome and encourage any suggestions for new or updated training programs you may have seen or heard about that would be an asset to our training resource collection. To submit a request to add a new video or CD to our media collection, please provide any information you may have including title, vendor, cost, etc. We are also searching for law enforcement personnel who would be willing to preview and provide us with an evaluation of possible new purchases for the Resource Center. Please contact us if you would be interested in assisting us in this way.

ABOUT THIS CATALOG

This catalog contains a comprehensive annotated listing of all audio-visual training programs available from the Resource Center. You will note that it contains a SUBJECT INDEX at the beginning and a TITLE INDEX at the end. Please refer to the section "HOW TO ORDER" for additional instructions.

The programs included in this catalog are not meant to be a substitute for traditional training classes and may refer to local laws, policies, and procedures which may conflict with other jurisdictions. The program content of these materials was accurate at the time of production. It is the trainer's responsibility to preview materials prior to classroom viewing to determine the accuracy and validity of the content. The Law Enforcement Resource Center waives all legal responsibility of the content in these supplemental training resource programs.

SCHEDULING PRIORITIES

The highest priority is given to the police recruit training programs at the Regional Training Academies to ensure that the required programs will be available for their scheduled training classes. To accomplish this, we prefer that law enforcement agencies request programs no more than one month in advance and limit their requests to four items for any given date.

COPYRIGHTED MATERIALS

Most programs in this catalog are protected under the United States Copyright Law. These programs may not be duplicated or reproduced in whole or in part without specific written permission from the copyright holder. The Law Enforcement Resource Center vigorously supports the rights of copyright holders and will not permit the violation of their rights or permit the use of the Center's equipment to reproduce copyrighted materials.

WHO IS ELIGIBLE TO PARTICIPATE?

Borrowers must be located within the state of Michigan. Those eligible to borrow programs from the Resource Center include the following:

- 1) All regional police training academies approved by the Michigan Commission on Law Enforcement Standards providing the mandatory basic police training program.
- 2) All Michigan law enforcement agencies that employ Commission on Law Enforcement Standards certified officers.
- 3) Colleges and universities with academic criminal justice training programs. The use of Resource Center materials will only be permitted if the training is for certified law enforcement audiences and not to a general academic audience.

NOTE: All materials from the Law Enforcement Resource Center is to be utilized solely in the training of Michigan law enforcement officers. Use of these programs is restricted to law enforcement training.

HOW TO ORDER

MAKING YOUR REQUEST

Training materials may be scheduled for use by contacting the Law Enforcement Resource Center located at the Michigan State Police Training Academy, 7426 North Canal Road, Lansing, MI 48913. Our business hours are currently 9:00 a.m. to 12:00 noon Monday through Friday. You may use any of the following methods to contact us:

- 1) In person or by mail at the address shown above.
- 2) By phone at (517) 322-5624. A 24-hour voice mail system is also in effect for your convenience in ordering materials.
- 3) By fax at (517) 322-1130.
- 4) By e-mail at LutherS@state.mi.us.

Reservations are made on a first-come, first-serve basis. However, please order at least seven business days in advance to allow for proper entry and mailing time.

Always give your agency I.D. number, the catalog number of the items being requested and the complete time period required. It is helpful to have alternate titles and dates, whenever possible.

Loans will be limited to four (4) items for a specific date, however you may order for several dates at one time. Materials may be reserved for up to a two-week period excluding shipping time.

Since most programs are scheduled in advance for planned training sessions, it is imperative that borrowed materials are returned on time so that others may use them as scheduled. If towards the end of your reservation period you would like to request an extension, please call our office to check for the availability of additional time.

SHIPPING INFORMATION

All materials will be shipped to you through United Parcel Service (UPS) approximately three working days prior to the use date and must be returned promptly after use by UPS or First Class/Insured Mail to reach us on or before the due date. The due date is shown on the shipping label and the Program Usage/Comment Form. By shipping materials a minimum of two days prior to the due date, they should be received in the Resource Center on time. Your cooperation is essential to ensure that the next borrower will receive programs on time.

RETURN INSTRUCTIONS

To prepare items for return, please complete the following steps:

- 1) Fill out the enclosed Program Usage/Comment Form and lock the mailing containers. In order to continue this service to you, we require you to report the number of trainees or officers that viewed each program on the Program Usage/Comment Form. These statistics are used to apply for grant funds each year and are also reported to the Michigan Justice Training Commission in the year-end final report.
- 2) Reverse and tape the mailing label on every program. When returning more than one program, tape them securely together.
- 3) Ship them by UPS or First Class/Insured Mail. UPS is our choice because it is the most dependable, traceable, and costs the least.

NOTE: The borrowing agency is financially responsible for all materials from the time they are received until they are returned safely to the Resource Center. This includes loss of items or damages which require commercial repair or replacement. Since our training programs range in cost from $50 to $1600 each, you may wish to provide additional insurance coverage for your department's protection in case of damage or loss. In most cases, the cost of the program is noted inside the mailing case for your information.

CARE AND HANDLING OF PROGRAMS

The high cost of video programs make the need for proper handling of such materials imperative. Upon return of each video, it is checked for damage, but a great deal of the responsibility for maintenance falls on the user. If a video tape is damaged, include a note of explanation on the Program Usage/Comment Form. Make no repairs on the tape itself.

Extra care should be taken to ensure that each program is returned in the proper mailing container. Failure to do so may result in a mix-up of programs, thereby causing another instructor or department to receive the wrong program.

A FRIENDLY REMINDER:

PLEASE RETURN THE PROGRAMS ON OR BEFORE THE DUE DATE OUT OF COURTESY FOR OTHERS WHO MAY HAVE THE PROGRAM RESERVED.
THANK YOU!

CAS0001 GRAMMAR FOR BUSINESS PROFESSIONALS
349 min. CAREERTRACK 2000 SI

Do you wish you remembered more of what your grammar teacher taught you? In business, your ideas are only as good as your ability to express them. That's why is it important to know and apply systematic grammar rules when you speak and write. Nothing adds more credibility than clear and correct communication. This program consists of six two-sided audiocassettes in which communication expert Pat Cramer demystifies the puzzling world of grammar, word usage, sentence structure, and punctuation with wit and style. You will gain a renewed sense of confidence in your ability to communicate accurately and professionally in a business setting.

V0002 SHOOT/DON'T SHOOT - PT. I

24 min. MTI 1973 FI
Physically involves the viewer in each decision depicted by instructing him to actually pickup a blank pistol and shoot/don't shoot at the screen. The concept of ability-opportunity-jeopardy is offered.

V0002A SHOOT-DON'T SHOOT - PT. 2

25 min. MTI 1973 FI
The purpose of this film is to impress upon the viewer the extreme consequences of being wrong in a shooting situation. Confrontations include use of firearms and other lethal weapons.

V0016 FIELD INTERVIEWING

20 min. MTI 1974 IR

Illustrates both good and bad techniques for law enforcement interviews and emphasizes the intelligent use of the interview to obtain information. Follows an instructional plan based on the 'Ten Commandments of Interviewing'.

V0017 REPORT WRITING

24 min. MTI 1975 IR

Strives to motivate the officer to write clear and accurate reports and then teaches him how to do the job in an effective, yet interesting way.

V0018 AUTHORITY, PT. A: HUMAN DIMENSION SERIES

22 min. HARPER-ROW 1975 PC

Covers such points as the practical or professional limits of authority, how personal values can influence an officer's exercise and enforcement of authority, what happens when personal feelings conflict with the rational exercise of authority, monitoring and assessing the emotions and sensitivities during a domestic disturbance and police encounters where 'going by the book' may not be the answer. Recreates actual events in order to trigger examination of specific problems with each scene entirely open-ended so officers must evaluate the impact of attitudes and actions demonstrated.

V0019 AUTHORITY, PT. B: HUMAN DIMENSION SERIES

22 min. MTI 1975 JC,PC

Considers pressures an officer might experience to overlook violations of the law, what type of discretion should be used in encounters with a juvenile offender, how personal factors such as age or race can irrationally influence the way a situations resolved and the conflict between the desire to get results and violating the law to do so. Recreates actual events in order to trigger examination of specific problems with each scene entirely open-ended so officers must evaluate the impact of the attitudes and actions demonstrated.

V0020 COMMUNITY, PT. A: HUMAN DIMENSION SERIES

22 min. HARPER-ROW 1975 PC

Examines the various ways in which an officer's attitudes and behavior on routine calls may undermine public confidence, how the conduct of off-duty officers can affect public perception and what may happen when an officer adopts a shell of callousness or indifference as insulation from the daily encounters with human tragedy. The question of an officer's responsibility to serve the entire community impersonally and equally and the possible consequences of failure to do so is also weighed. Recreates actual events in order to trigger examination of specific problems with each scene entirely open-ended so officers must evaluate the impact of the attitudes and actions demonstrated.

V0021 COMMUNITY, PT. B: HUMAN DIMENSION SERIES

22 min. HARPER-ROW 1975 PC

Explores the conflicts that may arise when different law enforcement agencies interact, how to handle comments and attitudes encountered in informal settings, deals with the question of an officer's professional duty in the face of frustrating situations and the reality of the often tedious and monotonous patrol work. Recreates actual events in order to trigger examination of specific problems with each scene entirely open-ended so officers must evaluate the impact of the attitudes and actions demonstrated.

V0022 ETHICS, PT. A: HUMAN DIMENSION SERIES

20 min. MTI 1975 ET

Deals with the opposite sex and the moral temptations encountered, conflicting loyalties of an officer torn between a partner and professional responsibilities, and preserving professional integrity under the pressures of peer and supervisory corruption. Also looks at the strong bonds of loyalty that may tempt an officer to take the law into his own hands when a partner is injured. Recreates actual events in order to trigger examination of specific problems with each scene entirely open-ended to officers must evaluate the impact of the attitudes and actions demonstrated.

V0023 ETHICS, PT. B: HUMAN DIMENSION SERIES

17 min. MTI 1975 ET

Explores ethical problems encountered as a result of a desire to protect a partner in an unprofessional or unethical situation, how 'little things' can slowly fuel police corruption and conflicts of making a 'clean' arrest. Also discusses how the legal system can be circumvented by defense lawyers to free known criminals. Recreates actual events in order to trigger examination of specific problems with each scene entirely open-ended so officers must evaluate the impact of the attitudes and actions demonstrated.

V0024 MINORITIES: HUMAN DIMENSION SERIES

17 min. MTI 1973 PC

Talks about the basic nature of prejudice, its relationship to discrimination from the officer's viewpoint and how conflicts with minorities can lead to patterns of hostility and resentment. Considers certain pressures and strains that minority officer's may be subjected to. Recreates actual events in order to trigger examination of specific problems with each scene entirely open-ended so officers must evaluate the impact of the attitudes and actions demonstrated.

V0025 STRESS: HUMAN DIMENSION SERIES

20 min. MTI 1973 OD

Discusses the psychological strains which the criminal justice system can exert on an officer, the social, psychological and administrative problems and the potential of women in law enforcement, how the private life is affected by the social and psychological pressures of being a police officer and how to deal with hostilities from the 'average citizen'. Recreates actual events in order to trigger examination of specific problems with each scene entirely open-ended so officers must evaluate the impact of the attitudes and actions demonstrated.

V0026 PURSUING SUSPECTS ON FOOT

10 min. MTI 1974 PP

A suspected child molester is spotted. An officer moves in for a field inquiry and the suspect takes off. We follow the chase through to the arrest and on the way observe all the basic 'do's' and don'ts' of hot pursuit on foot. A team operation at night is then studied, winding up in a methodical quadrant search.

V0027 AGGRESSIVE PATROL

10 min. MTI 1974 PP

How the alert officer can discourage crime with random patrol, field inquiries, and good relations with business people and residents on his beat. Particular emphasis is given to the proper handling of field inquiries in terms of public relations as well as the officer's physical safety. Also reminds the viewer of his responsibility in relation to 'attractive nuisances' and other neighborhood hazards.

V0030 REALITY OF RAPE

11 min. MTI IT

A young hitchhiker is picked up on her way to work. We then see a powerful recreation of how a rapist 'negotiates' for psychological control, as well as the violent act of rape itself. Subsequent scenes involve two officers of varying sensitivity, as they respond to the emotional needs of the victim before proceeding with the preliminary interview. A teaching tool, as well as useful for public information.

V0032 TARNISHED BADGE

25 min. MTI ET

A film about the downfall of an experienced sergeant who succumbed to the temptations of corruption. Designed to provoke discussion on the subject of police ethics. The viewer comes to identify with how Sergeant Kevin Carter's involvement in a series of corrupt activities has consequences to his self-esteem, financial security, family, fellow officers and his department.

- V0033 SHOTGUN-SECOND WEAPON
 25 min. MTI 1985 FI
 Entry-level in-service film on the proper use of the law enforcement shotgun, styles and makes of weapons, psychology of the shotgun, car mounts, ammunition, and avoidance of lethal situations caused by improper understanding of what the shotgun can and cannot do.
- V0034 LIFELINE DISPATCHER COMMUNICATIONS
 17 min. MTI 1976 DI
 A package program for the training of dispatchers and complaint takers. It does not offer a right and wrong approach, but presents situations and allows the instructor to present and explain departmental policy and procedures.
- V0040 DEFUSING HOSTILE INDIVIDUALS
 22 min. MTI CM
 This film shows how to gain control of a potentially explosive situation without physically touching the disputants or contributing to the escalation of the situation. Examples are then given on how to restore the emotional environment to a level in which the tensions are reduced and the disputants can discuss the problem.
- V0042 CONFLICT RESOLUTION - MEDIATING DISPUTES
 21 min. MTI 1976 CM
 This film presents two situations which focus on mediation and the advantages that it has to the officer. The most important advantage is the fact that mediation brings a positive and mutually agreed upon resolution to the issues. The film is used to show a process of authentic conflict resolutions suitable to a wide variety of conflicts where underlying issues are negotiable.
- V0043 CONFLICT RESOLUTION - UTILIZING COMMUNITY RESOURCES
 20 min. MTI 1976 CM
 This last film in the series is designed to cover the area of assistance to disputants whose problems go beyond law enforcement concerns. In the conflict situation presented during the film, the officer is expected to be thoroughly familiar with agencies in his area and must have the knowledge of how best to link the disputants and their problem to the appropriate community agency. The film also covers the area of setting up a complete referral process for your own department which would give your officers all the information they need to know regarding the community agencies available to them.

V0044 INVESTIGATION OF RAPE

20 min. MTI 1976 IT

Responding to a rape situation requires the sensitivity and teamwork of police, emergency medical staff, and the prosecutor. Common to all involved is the extreme importance of proper psychological handling of the victim as well as the collecting, preserving and maintaining of physical evidence. This film deals with the relationship of police and hospital personnel to the victim's needs during the physical examination, and provides an appreciation for thoroughness and the proper chain of evidence in seeking a conviction.

V0045 MAXIMIZING WITNESS COOPERATION

21 min. MTI 1976 LP

This film is designed to develop a consistent, sensitive and effective approach by law enforcement agencies to ensure greater witness cooperation. The fears and frustrations of both witnesses and officers are shown, demonstrating a mutual lack of understanding. Methods to affect increased cooperation are depicted.

V0046 DEATH NOTIFICATION

27 min. MTI 1976 PC,PP

This film shows how a police officer unavoidably triggers crisis during a death notification and then explains how the officer can minimize the trauma and take positive action to diminish the survivor's suffering. More importantly, the film and accompanying notes help you help your officers minimize their own anguish and trauma when carrying out this most distressing assignment.

V0047 OBSERVATION & PERCEPTION

22 min. MTI 1976 PP

Every police officer, whether on patrol or on investigation, must develop the ability to accurately perceive what is observed. This film helps the viewer identify with practical techniques for better observation, the capacities and limitations of the human senses for sight and sound, and different ways in which individual perceptions are affected by experience, motion, distance, light level, and alertness. A major portion of the program involves the viewer in decision-making through presentation of a number of short vignettes recreating patrol encounters.

V0048 OFFICER DOWN - CODE 3

26 min. MTI 1975 DT

Police officer survival film which shows dramatic case histories of officer killings and explores the reasons why. Situations emphasize that police error is the leading cause of death and develops the Ten Commandments of Survival.

V0049 HOW TO SAVE CHOKING VICTIM: HEIMLICH MANEUVER

17 min. AIMS 1982 FA

Choking can cause death in just four minutes. Each year an estimated four thousand Americans die in this way. The film presents a new lifesaving technique that is gaining recognition for rescuing people from unnecessary and tragic accidental death. Dr. Henry J. Heimlich, who developed the maneuver, demonstrates how to perform his technique and why it works. This important film should be seen by everyone since we all have the potential to be a choking victim or a rescuer.

V0052 OFFICER SURVIVAL 1-2-3

24 min. MTI 1979 DT

Three actual incidents (an armed suspect, a barricaded gunman and the Newhall shoot-out) have been recreated in which officers were assaulted and killed because they handled situations incorrectly. The program was developed by the L.A. Sheriff's Department and presents not only reenactment, but also possible alternative solutions.

V0054A ACCIDENT INVESTIGATION I

22 min. MTI IT

Beginning with a vignette of an auto accident, this film lays the foundation for a discussion of the qualifications of the investigating officer, and of the initial steps of his preparation for this important assignment. Emphasizes the importance of accurate vocabulary in recording and reporting findings and discusses the theory and application of determining speeds. This is the first video of a three video series (V54A, V54B, V54C).

V0054B ACCIDENT INVESTIGATION II

22 min. MTI IT

Covers the handling of the drivers involved in an accident. Dramatizes the life situation of each man leading up to the accident shown in the vignette in Accident Investigation I. Demonstrates how the investigating officer deals with these personalities in the situation and with witnesses on the scene, working backward to establish a list of the contributing factors. This is the second video of a three video series (V54A, V54B, V54C).

V0054C ACCIDENT INVESTIGATION III

27 min. MTI IT

Explains the necessity of photographing the accident scene before the pavement is marked. Describes measurements as the first priority, discussing the types of skid marks, the positions of debris and what those positions may indicate. Explains figuring the drag factor of the pavement and the use of the nomograph to determine speeds. This is the third video of a three video series (V54A, V54B, V54C).

V0055 RESPONSE TO NON-NEGOTIABLE HOSTAGE SITUATIONS

19 min. MTI 1979 DT,CM
 Aimed at preparing the officer for the ultimate hostage situation where negotiations have broken down, the film emphasizes the need for planning and good intelligence. Film outlines criteria for anticipating such situations and for creating workable plans for tactical response.

V0057 OFFICER STRESS AWARENESS

21 min. MTI/HARPER ROW 1978 OD
 Part I in this three part series (V57, V58, and V59) shows officers and students what stress can do to both a policemen's emotional and physical health. The necessity of learning how to cope with this pressure is emphasized.

V0058 OFFICER STRESS AWARENESS: INTERNALIZING PROBLEMS

24 min. MTI/HARPER-ROW 1978 OD
 Part II in this three part series (V57, V58, V59) demonstrates one unsuccessful method of coping with stress is locking feelings and emotions inside oneself. The danger of doing this and the importance of finding an alternate solution is discussed.

V0059 OFFICER STRESS AWARENESS: EXTERNALIZING PROBLEMS

24 min. MTI/HARPER-ROW 1978 OD
 Part III of this three part series shows another pattern of behavior adopted to handle stress is externalizing emotions. People who take their feelings out on others may not suffer as much as those who internalize, but this type of coping is also far from successful.

V0060 MANAGING STRESS

34 min. CRM 1979 OD
 Stress encountered in everyday life is often unavoidable, but in moderation can be healthy. Research-based general information is presented here on work-related stress. Common sources of stress are recognized and the viewer is helped to assess his or her tolerance for stress and successful ways of coping with it.

V0061 SURVIVAL SHOOTING TECHNIQUES

35 min. MTI 1979 DT,FI
 This multi-media program educates officers on the best methods for surviving armed confrontations. Content includes proper approach techniques in the five most common situations in which officers are killed.

- V0062 HOSTAGE NEGOTIATION FOR POLICE - PT.1 & 2
51 min. MTI 1977 CM,DT
A multimedia program for all law enforcement and security personnel who may be directly or indirectly involved in hostage situations--particularly the barricaded type. It features three hostage situations involving criminals and the mentally disturbed. Key content: proven negotiation techniques, perimeter control, command post operation, media control, tactical response, hostage behavior, personality profiles of criminal and mentally disturbed suspects, methods of intelligence gathering, and a wealth of actual negotiation interactions. It shows both the behavioral/communications aspect of the problem as well as the complex tactical support required.
- V0066 FIELD NOTETAKING & REPORTS
10 min. MTI IR
Using the story line of a homicide investigation, the importance of good notetaking and report writing is emphasized. Attention is given to detail, promptness, and accuracy. Some coverage is also given to sketching techniques.
- V0067 TRAFFIC DIRECTION & CONTROL
22 min. MTI 1985 DS
Through the presentation of a variety of traffic and pedestrian control situations, the need for consistent traffic direction and the correct utilization of equipment is emphasized. Inclement weather, major events, highway situations, and day and nighttime occurrences are discussed.
- V0068 CPR FOR RESCUERS - UPDATED 1992
30 min. PYRAMID 1992 FA
Professional rescuer version includes one-rescuer CPR, two-rescuer CPR, airway obstruction, special situations, pediatric modules and a dramatic re-enactment.
- V0069 POLICE CIVIL LIABILITY: SUPERVISORY LIABILITY
25 min. MTI 1979 LC

V0077 SOMEONE ELSE'S CRISIS
26 min. MTI IT,PC

A film dealing with the officer's responsibility to provide psychological and emotional aid to a victim in addition to his/her job of investigating a crime.

V0078 PROBABLE CAUSE: SEARCH & SEIZURE
28 min. MTI IT,LP

This film covers how an officer determines probable cause - how he reaches the decision that he has sufficient facts or circumstantial proof to search/seize/arrest with or without a warrant.

V0079 LAW ENFORCEMENT/CIVIL LIABILITY: AN INTRODUCTION
15 min. AIMS 1986 LC

A good film to introduce the subject of civil liability, this overview presents a realistic look at common law in action where a single mistake can turn an officer into a defendant. Points of law often not fully understood are highlighted and situational examples provided.

V0080 ROUTINE STOPS
18 min. AIMS 1980 PP

Tactical mistakes and failure to observe traffic safety rules cause many officers problems in the so-called routine traffic stop. This film demonstrates step-by-step procedures of safe vehicle pull-overs for a variety of situations. Designed for both new and experienced officers.

V0081 HIGH-RISK STOPS
21 min. AIMS 1986 PP

Twelve points to consider on high-risk traffic stops are demonstrated in this film with special emphasis on vans, campers and biker stops. Appropriate for both new and experienced officers.

- V0082 HISTORY OF POLICING IN AMERICA
 22 min. MTI 1980 SI
 Utilizing flash-back sequences, this film describes the evolution of law enforcement from the past. Described as an excellent aid in teaching the history and philosophy of law enforcement in basic schools.
- V0084 WHAT WOULD YOU DO?
 16 min. MTI MI
 Designed to act as a catalyst for discussions on the special problems of recognizing and handling the mentally retarded. A number of vignettes portray typical situations an officer might encounter.
- V0085 DELINQUENCY-THE PROCESS BEGINS
 28 min. MTI/JASON FILMS JC
 This is part one of a four-part video series (V85, V86, V87, V88). It looks at the lives of two 13-year-old male juveniles from different backgrounds and family settings. Parents, educators, police officers, judges and probation officers each present their views on the problems, the juveniles and the juvenile system. Key issues are examined which include the influence of social force versus inherited pathological tendencies.
- V0086 DELINQUENCY-STREET VIOLENCE
 28 min. MTI/JASON FILMS JC
 This is the second part of a four-part video series (V85, V86, V87, V88). It presents a thorough study of delinquency among older adolescents. Using a one-on-one documentary style, it emphasizes the increasing trend toward violent crime among teenage offenders and the influence of gangs on juvenile crime.
- V0087 DELINQUENCY-THE CHRONIC OFFENDER
 28 min. MTI/JASON FILMS JC
 This is the third part of a four-part video series (V85, V86, V87, V88). This study of an apparent sociopath offender, 'Shotgun Joe', inside prison, reveals his relationships with the people in his world. It points out that to affect rehabilitation, many repeat adolescent delinquents require a more complete understanding of their behavior and more effective methods for coping with them while in the system.
- V0088 DELINQUENCY-PREVENTION AND TREATMENT
 28 min. MTI/JASON FILMS JC
 This is the fourth part of a four-part video series (V85, V86, V87, V88). It explores three contemporary delinquency treatment and prevention programs such as police diversion, peer-pressure therapy and community-based corrections.

A combination of media provides information on the responsibilities of the first officer to respond to a homicide call.

V0094 POLICE PURSUIT

17 min. FILM COMMUNICATORS DS,PP

The police car becomes just as lethal a weapon as the service revolver in the hands of an unskilled operator - especially during pursuit situations. Behind the wheel demonstrations cover the crucial points necessary for skillful pursuit driving. Narrated by Jack Webb.

V0098 INTERVIEW TECHNIQUES

10 min. CHAS. MACCRONE 1980 IR,LP

Care and technique in interviewing the victim/witness can make a real difference in trial outcome. The factors affecting the success of an interview are reviewed here.

V0099 CRIMES IN PROGRESS

10 min. CHAS. MACCRONE 1980 DT,PP

Using illustrations of cases where something went wrong, causing an officer to get shot, the importance of avoiding the 'John Wayne' syndrome is stressed. Every officer must be trained to react appropriately to calls even when his adrenaline urges him to 'go get 'em'.

V0100 MENTAL ILLNESS

14 min. CHAS. MACCRONE 1980 MI

Situations in which a person is exhibiting unusual or perhaps violent behavior may involve mental illness and will call for a conscious decision on the part of the officer as to how to react. This film discusses the manifestations of mental illness and shows how an officer's attitude and reading of a situation can tip the balance one way or the other.

V0101 BARRICADED SUSPECTS

14 min. CHAS. MACCRONE 1980 DT

A good introduction to the subject of barricaded gunmen. An outline of the best procedures to utilize is provided in order to get out of this type of situation with as few problems as possible.

V0106 HOT PURSUIT

17 min. MTI 1980 DS

This film version of the 60-Minute segment on the question of pursuit driving would be suitable for several audiences. Not a 'how to' program, this instead highlights the public's view of pursuit situations and can help the officer be more aware of how his actions may be viewed by the public.

V0107 WHO DID WHAT TO WHOM?

20 min.

RESEARCH PRESS

OD

Described as Robert Mager's classic film on improving human relation skills. This material is used with criterion referenced instruction, but is not specifically intended for use with professionals. A leader's guide provides material when used in conjunction with the film to develop a 2-hour session. The basic behavioral principles covered are positive and negative reinforcement, punishment, and extinction.

V0109 VEHICLE STOP TACTICS - PART I & II

40 min.

MTI

1980

PP

This is directed at the need for training in the handling of incidents that are seemingly low risk in nature. UCR indicates that vehicle stops are one of the ten most common circumstances in which officers die. To address that, twenty-one different stops and instructional points are presented. These techniques have been successfully utilized repeatedly on the street and the film comes highly recommended.

V0114 FELONY VEHICLE STOP

10 min.

MTI

PP

This is a film presenting proven methods for response to a silent alarm, an automobile pull-over and search, handcuffing and transportation of suspects from a scene.

V0122 PCL: THE OFF-DUTY OFFICER

14 min.

AIMS

1978

LC

A common belief among officers is that their rights and responsibilities as law enforcers continue 24 hours a day. The fact is, certain off-duty situations make officers the perfect targets for civil suits. Some of these situations are illustrated and the film clearly shows whether an officer's department is responsible for providing legal support or paying damages in the event of a lawsuit.

V0123 PCL: NEGLIGENT USE OF MOTOR VEHICLES

13 min.

1978

LC

Claims and lawsuits brought for vehicular negligence far exceed any other. The film shows how to exercise due care for the safety of others, provide adequate warning to pedestrians and motorists that a police vehicle is parked in a hazardous manner. Special attention is paid to departmental directives and their role as evidence of an officer's negligence.

V0124 CHILD ABUSE

29 min. AIMS 1977 CA
 Three types of abuse are dramatized - incest, neglect and the battered child - to explain the legal aspects of spouse testimony, reports by doctors and school personnel, warrantless search and seizure, etc. The film points out key indicators of abuse and defines felony child endangering.

V0125 REPORT WRITING: SUPERVISOR'S RESPONSIBILITY

13 min. AIMS 1981 IR
 Many officers in the field write their reports just to get them past their immediate supervisors, not realizing that the conviction of the criminal they caught may depend on how complete their report is. This program shows the supervisor what to look for in a good report, and what he may and may not do to assist his officers in rewriting their reports.

V0126A HOMICIDE INVESTIGATION: THE CRIME SCENE

26 min. MTI IT
 This film emphasizes the importance of treating all dead-body calls as homicides until facts prove otherwise. It gives a detailed presentation of the officer's role in defining and protecting the crime scene, photographing and sketching the area, and noting the location of all evidence found. The duties of the photographer, print man, and deputy coroner are also explained.

V0126B HOMICIDE INVESTIGATION II: THE FOLLOW-UP

26 min. MTI IT
 This program describes the roles of the detectives, pathologist, and the prosecutors as the investigative teams take charge in the follow-up efforts of the homicide investigation. Officers will see how proper or improper handling of the crime scene and follow-up can affect the outcome of an important investigation. Experienced investigators will refresh their knowledge and learn techniques that ensure successful prosecutions.

V0127A IT'S YOUR MOVE SERGEANT- PT. 1

24 min. MTI MS,ET
 This program is designed to create discussion on six simulated 'street' case studies, each presenting a common supervisory problem. At the moment of decision for each, the scene freezes and the narrator challenges the viewer to make the decision facilitating a discussion on the 'who-what-where-when-why-and-how' of the problem and alternative solutions. No on-screen solution is ever presented. Topics covered include ethics, integrity, theft, sleeping on duty, violation of direct orders, harassment by a subordinate, and chain of command pressures.

V0127B IT'S YOUR MOVE SERGEANT- PT. 2

20 min. MTI MS,ET

This part of the program develops decision-making skills in operational and interpersonal areas. Eight simulated 'street' case studies present common supervisory problems. At the moment of decision, the scene freezes and it is up to the viewer to analyze the situation and make a decision. The leader can facilitate discussion about alternative solutions to each situation. The topics include morale, ethics, morals, rules, crime by officers, racism, departmental image and public relations, and chain of command pressures.

V0128 PATROLMAN, YOU HAVE A PROBLEM

22 min. MTI 1975 ET

Designed to educate officers in human behavior and interpersonal communication, this film uses open-ended vignettes to stimulate discussion. Bigotry, peer pressure, loyalty, bribery, gratuities, personality clashes and police/citizen confrontations are dealt with.

V0131 INVESTIGATION OF HANDGUN WOUNDS

V0135C BOMBS III

20 min. MTI 1975 BO

Part III of a three-part series (V135A, V135B, V135C) provides the viewer with theoretical knowledge of various bomb disposal techniques so he can judge the danger of acting without planning in a bomb situation. The viewer is tested by being asked to make decisions on how to handle a variety of bomb situations.

V0139 VISUAL DETECTION OF DRIVING WHILE INTOXICATED

10 min. U.S.DEPT.OF TREASURY 1981 DA,PP

Examples are provided of the best visual cues for discriminating nighttime drunk drivers from sober ones. Based on field studies which correlated patrol stops with blood-alcohol concentrations, these 20 cues account for more than 90% of all DWI detections.

V0141 DRUG EMERGENCY: FIRST-AID

16 min. FILM COMMUNICATORS 1982 FA

Reenactments aid in illustrating two principal categories of drug emergencies: 1) a person has taken a drug or combination of drugs which depresses the respiratory system, and 2) a mind-altering drug causes a person to act in a manner which endangers himself or others. The viewer is taught to recognize life-threatening reactions to drugs and how to sustain life until medical help arrives.

V0142 POISONING: FIRST-AID

16 min. FILM COMMUNICATORS 1982 FA

This film shows some of the common causes of poisoning in children and how to make the home 'poison proof'. First aid procedures for conscious and unconscious victims based on revised recommendations from poison control center are illustrated. It also deals with some of the hidden poisoning threats to adults and makes viewers aware of poison information centers that exist in most cities.

V0143 OFFICER SURVIVAL: NIGHT VS. DAY PATROL

21 min. MTI DT,PP

This film approaches patrol problems from an officer survival point of view. It carefully inspects the differences between day and night patrol and the dangers associated with each. It goes beyond basic and proven tactical concepts to look at the attitudinal and behavioral implications of working the night patrol.

V0144 STOP! POLICE!

14 min. MTI 1985 DT

Harry Reasoner demonstrates the difficulties an officer faces when making the decision to use deadly force in life-threatening situations. Helps people gain an improved insight into deadly force problems, an appreciation for the high level of skill development and training that assists an officer in deciding when to use deadly force, and an understanding of the incredible pressures on each officer to make the 'right' decision every time.

V0145 SHOOTING DECISIONS

25 min. MTI 1985 FI,DT,LC
 Presents authentic reenactments of 21 shooting situations in which the decision had to be made to shoot or not to shoot. Trains officers to develop legally acceptable decision-making skills about suspect behavior and environmental factors. Demonstrates how to apply cover, concealment, use of explicit verbal challenges, and reloading techniques in a variety of armed confrontations. Documents situations with low light levels and multiple adversaries.

V0146 POWER PINCH, THE: SEXUAL HARASSMENT IN THE WORKPLACE

28 min. MTI SE,MS
 Shows that when sexual harassment invades the department, everyone becomes a target for this serious and illegal behavior. Alerts viewer to the sexual harassment problem and illustrates behavior which is defined as sexually harassing, including more subtle forms. Examines the causes and repercussions of sexual harassment and shows what all parties can do to prevent and curtail its occurrence.

V0147 HANDLING FIREARMS

32 min. MTI FI
 Reviews the principles of safe handling, maintenance, and operation of several different types of firearms. Close-up demonstrations, dramatizations and crime-scene photography are used to compare weapon/ammunition handling with other skills where safety depends on familiarity with and respect for equipment. Details good weapon handling habits in a variety of typical law enforcement activities, including exiting vehicles, disarming suspects, rendering found weapons safe, making an arrest, unintentional shooting and weapon malfunctioning.

V0150 TESTIFYING IN COURT

10 min. CHAS. MCCRONE LP
 This film discusses the officer's role as a witness in the courtroom. It explains the value of pre-trial preparation and demeanor outside the courtroom and on the witness stand. It is designed as a refresher for department use at roll call meetings.

V0152 REPORT WRITING - KEY TO CONVICTIONS

15 min. AIMS 1986 IR
 Presents a basic approach to writing reports by examining the preliminary investigation and the reports that follow the investigation. Demonstrates the requirements for investigating and reporting both burglary, a crime against property, and an assault, a crime against a person. Provides sufficient information to the student to generate discussion about such topics as conducting a crime-scene search, locating and interviewing witnesses, understanding the difference between facts and opinions, identifying items of evidence, and investigating felonious assault and residential burglary.

V0153 CON GAMES INMATES PLAY: THE CORRECTIONAL OFFICER

22 min. AIMS CO

Reviews the games that inmates play to manipulate correctional officers. Also identifies those weaknesses in officers' behavior and attitude that can provide inmates with the leverage they need for manipulation. It shows the possible results of such losses of control by officers. The chief protection against con games is good supervision of inmates. Effective techniques of supervision are reviewed, their specific effects on maintenance of control are discussed.

V0154 SECURITY IN A CORRECTIONAL FACILITY: THE CORRECTIONAL OFFICER

21 min. AIMS CO

Inmates know it's not bars or walls or steel doors that keep them in - it's the correctional officer and his/her knowledge and practice of the elements of security. These elements are analyzed: classification, inspections, contingency plans, job analysis, firearms control, key control, counts, searches, and shake-downs. As specific details dramatize each element, penetrating questions are asked to encourage the viewer to test his own practices, knowledge and thoroughness.

V0155 REVOLVER, THE: OPERATION AND USE

14 min. AIMS FI

Covers all aspects of revolver use from basic safety, nomenclature, and care, to operation, dry-fire practice and corrective procedures. Teaches storage as well as such basic rules as being sure of your target and backstop, and a warning on mixing guns with alcohol and narcotics. Shows proper stance, grip, sighting, breath control, how to load and unload, what to do about misfires, how to correct recoil by ship-loading gives safety tips on ejected shells, the importance of quality ammunition and many other points that contribute to safe and efficient gun handling.

V0246 ROLLCALL SERIES (8 SUBJECTS)

65 min. LANSING COMM COLLEGE CA,LC,DA,OD,FI,IR

This videotape consists of eight short segments as outlined below:

MICHIGAN'S CHILD PROTECTION LAW (6 min.) discusses the responsibilities of law enforcement officers who know of, or suspect, child abuse or neglect.

DEADLY FORCE UPDATE (7 min.) discusses when use of deadly force is appropriate in Michigan. Also discusses criminal and/or civil liability for officers.

CRACK (12 min.) defines what crack is, what signs to look for to indicate a crack user, and explains why crack is so popular to users today.

STRESS AND POLICE WORK (7 min.) discusses stress, the police personality, the "fight or flight" syndrome and how to recognize stress.

KNIFE FIGHTING: A NEW PERSPECTIVE (5 min.) demonstrates how ineffective a firearm can be when an officer is confronted with a trained knife fighter. Contains a simulated demonstration.

HAZARDOUS MATERIALS (7 min.) addresses the initial responders responsibilities, stresses the dangers in controlling spills and reviews placard meanings.

FEDERAL CHILD PORNOGRAPHY LAW (10 min.) discusses how the Federal Statute can be of assistance to state and local law enforcement officials in the war against child sexual exploitation.

INITIAL INTERVIEW - SEXUAL ASSAULT (9 min.) demonstrates why the initial responding officer's first interview is so important.

V0247 OFFICER SAFETY

18 min. AIMS DT,PP

Many officers are injured or killed each year because they deviated from basic safety tactics. This video shows that following safety procedures at all times is a matter of life and death. Safety procedures are dramatized such as the need to develop emergency plans, take silent alarm calls seriously, practice quick and effective baton moves, keep the advantage during traffic stops and maintain a proper attitude at all times. This program serves as an excellent reminder for officers to protect themselves in everyday situations.

V0248 PHYSICAL EVIDENCE

36 min. MTI IT

Demonstrates the proper procedures and techniques needed to search, gather, identify, package, and analyze fingerprints, etc. Shows how a crime scene should be processed using proven search and investigative techniques, photography, sketching, and reporting. V0249 OUTLAW MOTORCYCLE GANGS

16 min. SYNDISTAR GV,PP

Outlaw motorcycle gangs have become a major law enforcement problem. This program advises law enforcement officers on how to approach and deal with 'bikers'. A variety of subjects are covered, including gang criminal activities, concealed weapons, symbols, practices, and the status of women.

V0250 GOING INTO SHOCK

17 min. PYRAMID FA

This training program presents an organized system for treating shock in victims of traumatic injury. It shows how to define shock, how to recognize and treat the three types of shock, and how to prevent or reverse shock through a step-by-step method for assessment, monitoring, and treatment.

V0252 WATER: FRIEND OR FOE

23 min. PYRAMID WA

In a series of dramatic episodes, this program shows how to prevent accidents in or around water, and how to save yourself or another when accidents occur. It includes step-by-step information on what to do in common water emergencies involving swimming, boating, fishing, and scuba diving, or being near a pond or swimming pool.

V0254 BADGE & THE BOTTLE

21 min. MTI MS

Lorne Greene narrates this film which is designed to teach law enforcement supervisors to recognize the symptoms of alcoholism in their personnel. It emphasizes the hazards of nonprofessionals attempting to counsel alcoholics, and the dangers of 'covering up', or passing such problems on to others. Supervisors are reminded about today's impressive alcoholism recovery-rate statistics (60-80%) and are strongly encouraged to follow existing departmental and/or labor-management policies and refer suspected alcoholics to the appropriate departmental or outside agencies for professional counseling.

V0255 RITUAL CRIME: GUIDELINES FOR IDENTIFICATION

18 min. AIMS

IT

Ritual crime is a reality that cannot be ignored. Law enforcement officers need to be aware that some crimes that appear routine may have clues that link them to ritualized cult activity. When identified, they may be able to prevent further criminal actions and determine if there are additional suspects for a particular crime. This video teaches officers how to accurately gather information and document evidence for such offenses as stolen church items, vandalized graves, missing body parts on victims, candle wax drippings, etc. The problem of teen involvement is discussed, explaining how adolescents are lured into cults and criminal activities. Another category of ritual crime is systematic child abuse, often in pre-schools or other child care situations as well as in cult families. Proper procedures for investigations that will lead to successful prosecutions are outlined.

V0256 LOOK AT YOUR MICHIGAN STATE POLICE

12 min. MSP

PC,SI

Provides an overview of the various duties and services performed by many divisions of the department.

V0257 BILL COSBY: ON PREJUDICE

22 min. PYRAMID

OD,MS

Portraying America's composite bigot and using a serious, thought-provoking monologue, Bill Cosby attempts to point out that there is nothing funny about prejudice. May be used to initiate discussion leading to an honest examination of attitudes and a way to make affirmative action work.

V0258 FOOT PURSUIT

16 min. MTI

DT,PP

A tactical training program which begins with a grippingly realistic reenactment of a fatal foot pursuit incident. The incident could have been avoided if the officer had followed correct tactical procedures. Seven stop-action vignettes present quick-decision situations which will effectively generate discussion between partners, fellow officers and supervisors on correct foot pursuit procedures and practical approved alternatives. Safe containment procedures are examined with a special emphasis given to the behavioral patterns of fleeing suspects.

V0259 DISPATCHER: LIFELINE TO THE COMMUNITY

24 min. MTI

DI,LC

This program trains both entry-level and experienced dispatchers to respond quickly, calmly and professionally to a variety of situations, from the commonplace complaint call to complex emergencies. V0262 COPYRIGHT LAW

21 min. A.I.M.E.

LP

The VCR has made it easier than ever to utilize program material in the classroom. It has created a revolution in the teaching process. It has also caused a serious copyright-related controversy. This program is intended to help eliminate the confusion, doubt and legal jeopardy and help you better understand the Copyright Law, to protect you and to protect program producers.

V0264 NEW LOOK AT COLD WATER NEAR-DROWNING

29 min. CONCEPT SYSTEMS, INC FA,WA

This training program is excellent for first responders, EMT's, paramedics, firefighters and other pre-hospital care providers. Includes dramatic footage from actual recoveries and discusses survivability factors. Explains how hypothermia and the dive reflex correlate in the drowning sequence, why children are more likely to survive, what happens to the internal organs during wet and dry drowning, why gentle handling during transport is crucial and what needs to happen during the first moments of rescue.

V0266 FBI "FIREFIGHT"

56 min. FBI ACADEMY 1988 DT,OD

A reenactment of a gunfight which took place on April 11, 1986, in Miami, Florida and resulted in the deaths of two federal agents, two bank robbers and the wounding of five other agents. One hundred-forty rounds were fired in a period of four minutes. A description of the incident is given as well as a discussion with the men involved. Emphasis is placed on a number of lessons relating to street survival, such as being prepared for the unexpected, having the means to survive on the street, taking training seriously so you will react in the way you have been trained and not underestimating your adversary. Law enforcement is a dangerous occupation and we have the obligation to protect the public from danger.

V0267 RESPONSE IN PROGRESS: THE THREAT TO OFFICER SURVIVAL

19 min. MTI 1988 DT,PP

Building on an actual event, this training program provides officers with the mental conditioning required to maximize chances for survival under any circumstances. By identifying and defining the four levels of Threat Awareness, it pinpoints levels that contribute to optimum decision-making abilities and mental readiness, helping officers develop consistent, tactical reactions to any high-risk situation. Officers will learn to think and act appropriately in order to be able to do the following: Co-ordinate communication, control physical response, increase awareness of personal safety and the safety of others during high-speed response, plan contingency actions and follow through with correct tactics and enforcement. Officers will also become aware of coping mechanisms essential to retaining hand-eye coordination, finger dexterity and sensory perception that can be lost during stressful confrontations. In freeing an officer both mentally and physically, this program insures the full utilization of prior tactical training which is the key to reducing risk to officers and bystanders.

V0268 DOMESTIC VIOLENCE

22 min. AIMS DV,PP

Domestic violence is not a private affair. Violence in the home is just as serious a crime as violence in the street. Arresting the batterer is the most effective way to stop repeat violence. The purpose of an arrest is not to keep offenders behind bars, but rather to force them to seek professional help for their abusive behavior. The intent of this program is to encourage law enforcement officers to evaluate their attitudes and responses to domestic violence since it is shown that it's cycle can be broken only by professional intervention. Two officers dramatize the step-by-step tactics for effectively answering a domestic violence call and emphasis is placed on the importance of ensuring the safety of the officers, the victim, children, other witnesses, and even the suspect.

V0269 LOCATION AWARENESS TACTICS

12 min. SYNDISTAR

PP

This training program stresses the importance of knowing your location, whether in pursuit, getting to the scene of a crime, or calling for assistance. It gives a series of tactics on how to map usual locations and how to get immediately acquainted with new ones.

V0270 DOMESTIC RESPONSE

12 min. SYNDISTAR

DV,PP

A law enforcement officer never really knows what to expect on a domestic violence call and the element of uncertainty makes them difficult to handle. This program offers guidelines to help officers answer these calls and protect the life of the parties involved, as well as their own.

V0273 AIDS BULLETIN FOR LAW ENFORCEMENT

23 min. FL. DEPT. LAW ENFOR.

FA,OD

This program was made especially for law enforcement officers. It provides the officer with instruction on how to reduce the risk of AIDS infection in typical situations and what to do if the officer accidentally made contact with body fluids. In instances involving the threat of AIDS infection, the officer is instructed on how to make reasonable judgments based on accurate information about the virus and how it can be controlled.

V0274 OFFICER SAFETY UPDATE (GEORGIA SHOOTING)

PP,DT

The purpose of this training program is to review safety procedures during routine or high risk traffic stops in an effort to keep officers awareness level high at all times. Using a video tape of an actual routine traffic stop by the Georgia State Patrol on I-95 near Savannah, Georgia, special emphasis is placed on the importance of using back-up assistance, using proper searching techniques and weapon retention. One of the suspects was shot, making this excellent tape for review and discussion.

V0275 CHAPMAN ON PRACTICAL SHOOTING VOL. 1-4

87 min. CHAPMAN ACADEMY

1988

FI

Covers the same material as in V275A, V275B, V275C, and V275D but in one videotape.

V0275A PRACTICAL SHOOTING: THE BASICS

23 min. CHAPMAN ACADEMY 1988 FI

Volume 1 covers the following points: importance of good shooting positions and how to assume them, the firing stroke from the holster to the target, how to control the weapon for both precision and fast shot placement, using the correct trigger finger placement and pressure, mental control and how to train yourself to use good shooting habits, and training the subconscious mind for stress control.

V0275B PRACTICAL SHOOTING: SHOOTING FROM COVER

23 min. CHAPMAN ACADEMY 1988 FI

Discusses what is and is not good cover, how to move and take cover quickly, using cover properly to protect yourself, different ways of shooting from cover positions, and using an automobile for cover.

V0275C PRACTICAL SHOOTING: SHOOTING ON THE MOVE

23 min. CHAPMAN ACADEMY 1988 FI

Points covered in volume 3 include tactical advantages of being able to shoot effectively while moving, how to control shot placement while moving, controlling body movement while shooting to strong side, weak side and straight ahead, techniques for quickly shooting at targets that are very close, and placing quick defensive shots while backing away from multiple targets.

V0275D PRACTICAL SHOOTING: MOVING TARGETS

18 min. CHAPMAN ACADEMY 1988 FI

This last volume discusses the following points: When you need to lead the target, how to calculate the lead needed for any distance, speed of target, ammunition velocity, getting the sight on the lead point quickly, tracking the target for multiple shots, how to aim for precision and fast shot placement, difference in competition and high stress techniques for practical shooting.

V0276 NIGHT DRIVING

11 min. SAFETY INDUSTRIES DS

Behind-the-wheel scenes highlight this program on one of the most neglected areas of driver education, driving at night. Attention is focused on headlight glare, highbeam and lowbeam problems, fatigue, eye strain, twilight problems and other areas of concern.

V0277 EVIDENCE COLLECTION: SEXUAL ASSAULT

22 min. LCC

IT,FA

Victims of sexual assault, whether child or adult, have special and serious needs which must be met not only by law enforcement authorities, but also by attending emergency medical staff, and rape crisis service providers. There is, therefore, a clear need for these service providers to work as a multi-disciplinary team to maximize benefits to any crime prevention effort.

V0278 SURVIVING EDGED WEAPONS

85 min. CALIBRE PRESS

DT

This program will teach you to defend yourself against the mounting threat of 'knife culture' offenders. These topics are discussed: How to assess an edged weapon assailant before he strikes, what really works and what doesn't, how to control him physically, when to use your baton and deadly force, how to avoid the fatal reactions untrained officers instinctively have to sudden knife attacks, life-saving survival insights from officers who have nearly been killed with edged weapons, how prison inmates and knife experts train for the ultimate deadly attack, what is the latest in improvised weapons and how to search for the most dangerous weapon, medical self-help to save your life if you are cut or stabbed.

V0279 ETHICS IN LAW ENFORCEMENT

19 min. AIMS

1989

ET

This program stimulates important discussions about ethics on the job. Officers discuss how careers can be destroyed through misguided loyalties, personal and professional frustrations, and an 'us-versus-them' attitude. It dramatizes several incidents involving unethical behavior on the part of law enforcement personnel. Following each dramatization, officers are encouraged to stop the program and discuss how they could handle the situation. No 'correct' responses are provided. Instead, officers are given the opportunity to assess how they would interpret the Code of Ethics in each case. Officers are also asked how they would respond if they witnessed unethical acts performed by their partners or a group of officers. The consequences of knowing what is happening, but doing nothing, are dramatized.

V0280 TRAUMA EMERGENCY

24 min. PYRAMID

FA,PP

This training program teaches first responders to identify trauma and to initiate fast and appropriate pre-hospital care. Rescuers responding to a multiple-injury automobile accident demonstrate primary assessment, including the ABC's of basic life-support, and secondary assessment, a quick, careful head-to-toe check of the patient. Additional sequences include a lifeflight evacuation and treatment of open chest wounds, burns and shock. It places special emphasis on the importance of communication with medical control and hospital emergency personnel.

V0281 IMPACT WEAPON TRAINING ISSUES

30 min. L.E. NET

DT,PP

The officer's nightstick or baton is often the first weapon of defense against a subject when deadly force is not required. It should only be used as a defensive, not an offensive weapon, to temporarily disable an offender. Early nightstick use resulted in long term damage in some subjects and high liability cases for police departments. The actual techniques and assault points have evolved into a more sophisticated level over the years. The main components of baton use are stance, grip, draw, block and strike. These elements apply to both the straight and side-handle batons and are defined specifically in this program, along with a discussion of the basic rules.

V0282 HANDGUN RETENTION

30 min. L.E.NET

FI,DT,PP

Facts show that assaults against police officers are increasing and that more officers are losing their weapons to subjects who use them against the officer. Studies also show that 90% of the subjects who have tried to disarm an officer attempted to kill the officer. The importance of maintaining a survivalist attitude, being aware of and avoiding incorrect procedures, are discussed in detail. This video points out visual clues that an alert officer should be aware of and physical clues that a potential assailant may look for in an officer. It also discusses retention and disarming techniques.

V0286 DIFFUSING AGGRESSIVE BEHAVIOR

PP,CM,DT

This program shows officers how to effectively diffuse aggressive incidents before anyone gets hurt. It dramatizes confrontational situations, pointing out the dangers in dealing with people who are upset or out of control. It offers precise explanations and uses on-screen captions to give officers a clear course of action to follow with strategies that are designed to reduce an individual's desire to attack. It demonstrates how letting the subject blow off steam before taking any further action can reduce the overall tension and prevent the situation from getting out of hand. It also identifies a variety of behaviors and physical characteristics that indicate an individual may be close to violence and demonstrates the best physical stance to take to avoid getting hurt in a sudden attack. It discusses the importance of taking control of the subject slowly and carefully and with backup assistance.

V0287 AIDS: ON-THE-JOB PROTECTIVE MEASURES

FA,OD

This program is designed to give officers the opportunity to test themselves to find out how well they're applying their knowledge about avoiding exposure to AIDS in the field. It reinforces the need to use gloves, masks, or safety goggles when handling a bleeding person or doing a body search. In addition to covering situations requiring the use of protective equipment, the program quizzes officers about such self-protective measures as checking exposed skin for cuts and abrasions before going on duty, cleansing skin while on duty, and notifying supervisors of high-risk incidents. Good for roll-call to remind officers not to become complacent in their daily duties.

V0288 ONE ON ONE

15 min. PYRAMID

DA

Produced by law enforcement officials, this program teaches law enforcement personnel how to handle individuals under the influence of PCP. Through an officer's dramatic confrontation with a PCP-using prisoner, it illustrates the signs that warn of PCP use and the precautions that can help ensure the safety of the officer, the public and the user. It offers valuable insight into methods of questioning possible PCP users and evaluating their responses. Also includes a booklet outlining the physical characteristics of PCP and its effects on the user.

V0290 VEHICLE STOP PROCEDURES

32 min. COLORADO L.E.T.A.

PP

Part One (9 minutes) illustrates a basic procedure for one officer to conduct a non-felony stop; Part Two (23 minutes) illustrates a basic procedure for two officers in two patrol cars to conduct a felony stop. It is presented in the format of a news broadcast, allowing the 'newscaster' to stop the action and comment on specific points. Produced in cooperation with the Golden Police Dept., the Arvada Police Dept. and the Colorado State Patrol. Some areas may not be in agreement with the laws and methods of Michigan. It is your responsibility to preview the material in advance to determine its usefulness to your training program.

V0291 ONE GOOD FINGERPRINT

17 min. COLORADO L.E.T.A.

OD,IT

Produced in cooperation with the Colorado Bureau of Investigation and the Golden Police Dept., this program shows how fingerprints are processed through the Automated Fingerprint Identification System at CBI. However, in order to get the best results from AFIS, agencies must submit good prints, so this program also includes a short review of how to take inked prints and a longer review of how to process latent prints. Some areas may not be in agreement with the laws and methods in Michigan. It is your responsibility to preview the material in advance to determine its usefulness to your training program.

V0292 STREET OFFICER'S INTRODUCTION TO HAZMAT, A

37 min.

COLORADO L.E.T.A.

OD, HM, PP

This four-part program was produced in conjunction with the Colorado Association of Chiefs of Police and is designed for roll call training on four successive days. It is intended to sensitize and educate officers about the dangers and problems associated with hazardous materials. The focus is on the 'DECIDE' method, a series of six steps which will help an officer to recognize and handle a hazmat problem. It also includes an explanation of placards and labels. Some areas may not be in agreement with the laws and methods of Michigan. It is your responsibility to preview the material in advance to determine its usefulness to your training program.

V0294 BUILDING SEARCHES: REDUCING THE RISKS

40 min.

COLORADO L.E.T.A.

PP

Over forty risk reduction techniques are illustrated in three building search scenarios. Part one (17 minutes) shows a search of an office building, while Part Two (23 minutes) shows searches in a warehouse and a residence. Photographed in cramped quarters under realistic lighting conditions, this program is intended as a vicarious experience for the viewing officer. Some areas may not be in agreement with the laws and methods of Michigan. It is your responsibility to preview the material in advance to determine its usefulness to your training program.

V295 SURVIVING THE COLD

17 min.

PYRAMID

FA, DT

Dramatic re-enactments of real life cold weather emergencies provide the focus for winter safety instructions in this life-saving film that teaches basic winter safety rules and heightens awareness of winter's dangers. Information includes how to recognize and treat hypothermia, how to prepare your home for winter emergencies, how to prepare for travel in winter, and what to do if trapped in a blizzard.

V0296 STANDARD FIRST AID

120 min.

FA

This course will prepare one to recognize the signs and symptoms of a heart attack, help someone who is choking, do the work of an unconscious person's heart and lungs until medical help arrives, and keep an injured person safe from further injury and as comfortable as possible until medical care arrives. In addition to demonstrating rescue breathing, choking situations, and heart attack, cardiac arrest and CPR, this program covers the following areas: bleeding and shock; burns; eye and nose injuries; bites and stings; fractures, dislocations, sprains, and strains; poisoning; diabetic emergencies; stroke; seizures; temperature extremes; and rescues.

V0299 TACTICAL SHOTGUN TECHNIQUES

43 min. PEM ASSOC.

FI

Produced in cooperation with Colonel Jeff Cooper of the American Pistol Institute in Paulton, Arizona and O.F. Mossberg & Sons, this video is a practical tactical techniques video which can be used by every law enforcement agency that employs shotguns.

V0300 BASICS TO BULLSEYES

36 min. KNIGHT MGT.

FI

John Pride, an award winning pistol champion, demonstrates how to master the 9MM handgun, covering grip, stance, aim, clearing malfunctions and cleaning. He also demonstrates the successful mental process he has developed to coordinate the actions of mind and body when shooting firearms. This is an excellent training tool for teaching the use of the 9MM semi-automatic handgun to inexperienced personnel.

V0301 EPILEPSY: A POSITIVE I.D.

22 min. UNIV. OF MINNESOTA

FA

An educational program designed to teach the differences between drug/alcohol abuse and an epileptic seizure. Since a person experiencing a complex partial seizure will have some of the same behaviors as a person who is abusing alcohol or drugs, it becomes very important to know the difference. Instructor manual, pre and post-test, and first-aid tips included.

V0302 STREET DRUGS

DA

'Street Drugs' are any substances bought, sold, used or abused outside a normal doctor/patient relationship. This program explains how these drugs affect both the brain and the body, what the initial effects, withdrawal, and long-term effects are for each drug including a section on the characteristics of addiction. The drug classifications covered include Depressants (alcohol, barbiturates, sedative-hypnotics and tranquilizers), Stimulants (cocaine, amphetamines, methamphetamines, caffeine, nicotine, Narcotics (opium, codeine, morphine, heroin, percodan, darvon), Hallucinogens (LSD, mescaline, psilocybin, PCP, marijuana, hashish), Inhalants (organic solvents and inorganic gasses), and Designer Drugs (MDMA or Ecstasy, Fentanyl, MPPP).

V0303 REPORT WRITING SERIES

96 min. LERC

IR

A series of 8 video tapes, ranging in length from 9 to 15 minutes and an 80-page application guide with easy to understand exercises. The objectives are to present current professional police report writing standards, simplify the writing and reading of reports and teach how to write reports that are complete and useful to supervisors for departmental follow-up. The most effective use would be in a classroom setting with strong instructor support. Individual application guides may be ordered for each officer's use. They may also be used for roll call training. The title and time of each program is listed below.

Video 1 The Write Stuff - 8 min.

Video 2 The Call - 9 min.

Video 3 Powerful Little Words - 14 min.

Video 4 Action Words - 14 min.

Video 5 Factual Statements - 13 min.

Video 6 Everyday Language - 11 min.

Video 7 Organization of Thoughts - 12 min.

Video 8 Structure of Ideas - 15 min.

V0304 FIELD INTERVIEWING

27 min. MTI

IR

The field interview is a necessary and integral tool in the investigation process. This program trains both experienced and beginning law enforcement personnel how to apply safe and effective investigative techniques while conducting a field interview. Officers will understand the importance of investigating while interviewing, review general field interviewing methods, examine the most common interview types (victim, witness, suspect), and discuss solutions to obstacles inherent to field interviews. It features a dramatized crime scene and discusses why field interviewing presents an ideal opportunity for helping victims and improving community relations.

V0305A L.A. GANGS: ON THE MOVE

19 min. MEDINA PRODUCTIONS

GV

This video is the first of a three-part series (V305A, V305B, V305C) which presents an inside look at gang members from a vantage point few peace officers ever "legally" see. It provides information and effective police techniques essential to the safety of every officer who comes in contact with gang members. V305A provides a powerful overview of the philosophy of gang activity. Contains easy 'how to' approach to identify gang members, translate communication, hand signs and graffiti, their impact on community and how to spot first signs of 'real' trouble. Contains Black, Latin, White, Asian, Pacific Islander and Girl gangs.

V0305B GANG BUSINESS: CRIPS AND BLOODS

16 min.

MEDINA PRODUCTIONS

GV

This video is the second of a three-part series (V305A, V305B, V305C) which presents an inside look at the gangsters from a vantage point few peace officers ever "legally" see. It provides information and effective police techniques essential to the safety of every officer who comes in contact with gang members. V305B shows an inside look at the Crips and Bloods drug network and how they have expanded their operations. Rock cocaine provides money and breeds violence and additional crime. Valuable recruitment information and methods used in Los Angeles help law enforcement understand and combat Crips and Bloods.

V0305C GANG UNIT MANAGEMENT

17 min.

MEDINA PRODUCTIONS

GV

This video is the third part of a three-part series (V305A, V305B, V305C) which presents an inside look at the gangsters from a vantage point few peace officers will ever "legally" see. It provides information and effective police techniques essential to the safety of every officer who comes in contact with gang members. V305C shows a law enforcement 'tactical' approach to determine your gang problem, details on how to set up a unit as small as one man, gang investigation techniques to gather information, catalogue and update files, who to train and how to deploy information is given. It also contains 'actual' tactical sweeps and methods to maximize field interviews.

V0306 MAN WITH A GUN CALLS: ANALYSIS OF OFFICERS KILLED

14 min.

AIMS

PP,DT

Reenactments of the true risks and new vital statistics give officers the information they need to survive while on man-with-gun calls. Some of the risks that are discussed include the following: the highest number of officers killed on man-with-gun calls were walking toward the location, 63% of their killers were over 40 years old, 70% intended to kill the officers at their first opportunity and one out of four killers had high-powered rifles. As this program dramatically illustrates, there are many ways to die on a man-with-gun call and studying these ways may keep officers alive.

V0307 TRAFFIC STOPS: ANALYSIS OF OFFICERS KILLED

13 min.

AIMS

PP,DT

This program will make officers more aware of the actual reasons for officers being killed while making a traffic stop. Some facts that are presented include the following: 45% of officers killed were shot during the early stages of the traffic stop, one third of the officers had indication of possible danger, one fourth of the officers were killed with their own weapon and 60% of the killers intended to kill the officers. These facts, along with reenactments of the actual incidents will not only help officers identify what they do right, but also see mistakes they make that could be deadly.

14 min.	SYNDISTAR	PP,DT
This program trains officers in a number of important patrol procedures which, when practiced on a daily basis, minimizes the risks of making traffic stops. It recommends using the 'P.A.C.E.' Method (Park*Approach*Contact*Escape) and emphasizes that there is nothing 'routine' about a traffic stop.

14 min.	SYNDISTAR	DT,OD
The key to survival for an officer facing a perilous situation is his ability to sense danger beforehand and act accordingly, in order to avoid being caught by surprise. This program instructs in preparation, sense training, visualization and evaluation of potentially dangerous persons and situations. Officers will learn to develop their 'sixth sense' that alerts when danger is imminent, and to anticipate, plan and practice reactions to dangerous situations.

14 min.	SYNDISTAR	DA,MS
This program is designed to educate supervisory personnel and others who work with identification and prevention of employee drug problems. It pinpoints the major drugs being abused in the workplace today, describing each drug's properties and effect on the user.

32 min.	CHEM. MANUF. ASSOC.	PP, HM
Covers information essential for the first responder when answering a potential hazardous material incident. Provides examples and critical steps of Michigan's Awareness Level training for hazardous material incidents.

39 min.	MSP	1990	DI
This program was made by dispatchers for dispatchers. Even though the dispatchers are from various jurisdictions in Michigan, the communication techniques and the procedures used are applicable to dispatchers everywhere. Most of the scenes show a dispatcher responding to a telephone call from a citizen and, if necessary, using the radio to send police, fire and/or emergency medical units. It is intended primarily for dispatchers who answer the telephone but can also be used for training any dispatch personnel.

V0314A FIT FOR DUTY: ROLL CALL FOR FITNESS

18 min.

MEDINA PRODUCTIONS

OD

The first of a three-tape series (V314A, V314B, V314C) designed for roll-call, academy, and in-service sessions which have been reported to drop sick time 42%, medical problems 39%, and has a 85% compliance to fitness. V314A is a motivational overview to make fitness a way of life. Provides full assessment, goal setting and plan of action. Emphasis on cardiovascular/respiratory endurance. Nutritional tips on eating on the run and good and bad cholesterol. Convenient starter program with specific 'to do' assignments. This is the beginning 'component' of total health and wellness program.

V0314B FIT FOR DUTY: FAT OR FIT

15 min.

MEDINA PRODUCTIONS

OD

The second of a three-tape series (V314A, V314B, V314C) designed for roll-call, academy, and in-service sessions and which have been reported to drop sick time 42%, medical problems 39%, and have a 85% compliance to fitness. The program shows how to develop a personal program to control weight and body composition while building stamina. An eating assessment and a plan to minimize heart disease, hypertension, etc. are included. Provides 'to do' assignments building on previous (V314A) series 'component' designed to take advantage of a change in habit towards health and wellness.

V0314C FIT FOR DUTY: MAXIMUM FORCE

15 min.

MEDINA PRODUCTIONS

OD

The third of a three-tape series (V314A, V314B, V314C) designed for roll call, academy, and in-service sessions and which have been reported to drop sick time 42%, medical problems 39%, and have a 85% compliance to fitness. This segment focuses on the highest injury areas of today's officer - the lower back, knees and shoulder area. Assess and develop a personal program to minimize injuries. Program emphasizes the building of muscle groups to insure greatest flexibility and build strength without apparatus. The ultimate goal is to promote a change in lifestyle.

V0315 AMERICA ON ICE

25 min.

LA EDUCATIONAL MEDIA

DA,PP

This informational program discusses such topics as how this drug is made, used, manufactured, it's similarity to Crank, what to look for, how to identify, other names used and the psychological and physical affects on the body and the brain. It includes information on how to locate and identify a clandestine laboratory and procedures to use in handling the situation. It also lists statistics, dangers, cost, and how it compares to Crack.

- V0316 CRACK: ONE DEADLY RECIPE
 22 min. LA EDUCATIONAL MEDIA DA,OD
 This training program shows how Crack is made, the methods, terminology and paraphernalia used. It includes information on how to look for and identify a 'Crack House' and how to search for and identify the drug. It also discusses affects of crack on the body and raid safety techniques.
- V0318 K-9 OFFICER SURVIVAL I
 15 min. LA EDUCATIONAL MEDIA DT,OD
 Through the reenactment of an actual shooting situation this video raises the officer's level of awareness. It covers the equipment needed and how it should be used. The relationship between the K-9 unit and the backup is covered through the eyes of the K-9 officer.
- V0319 TRAFFIC STOPS: TACTICS FOR SURVIVAL
 25 min. NLEOA PP,DT
 It is a well known fact that officers have been injured, some even fatally in what appears to be a 'routine' traffic stop. This program puts the emphasis on safety and survival by demonstrating how survival tactics are put into practice. It talks with officers who have survived near fatal experiences, explaining in detail where they failed and where they succeeded. Real officers are used to demonstrate proper tactics in an attempt to give officers knowledge that could save their lives.
- V0320 9MM EVALUATION
 13 min. MSP 1988 FI
 In an effort to enhance officer safety, a 16 member team of officers evaluate the 9mm semi-automatic weapon, using several brands and models in comparison to the .38 caliber revolver.
- V0321 FBI VEHICLE STOPS
 25 min. FBI ACADEMY 1990 PP
 The intent of this program is to train students in techniques of vehicle stops so they will have an understanding of the principles of compliant and non-compliant stops and roadblocks. They will also know the factors in selecting an apprehension site and be able to conduct a compliant and non-compliant vehicle stop as a member of an arrest team.
- V0322 EMERGENCY AQUATIC SKILLS
 50 min. AMERICAN RED CROSS WA
 Areas covered include victim recognition, non-swimming assists, entries, approaches, swimming assists and tows. Other important topics discussed include removal from the water, self-rescue skills, defenses and escapes, advanced rescue skills and how to perform rescue breathing in the water.
- V0325 GUN IS ALWAYS LOADED, A
 26 min. PEM ASSOCIATION 1990 FI

This program covers firearms safety in the office, on the range, and at home. Safe gun handling is a daily factor and should never be taken for granted. It blends factual information, interviews with law enforcement officers, and dramatic re-enactments with young children, older children, and a 'typical' officer's family to emphasize proper, consistent, responsible gun handling.

V0326 TACTICAL HANDGUN TECHNIQUES

43 min. PEM ASSOCIATION 1990 FI

This practical techniques video was produced in cooperation with Colonel Jeff Cooper of the American Pistol Institute in Pauldin, Arizona and may be used as a review or as part of a training program. It covers step-by-step procedures on the following subjects: Weaver Stance; Presentation (Draw); Front Sight Acquisition; Speed Loading; Rollover Prone; Harries Flashlight Technique; Loading-unloading; and Simulated Tactics and Mind Set.

V0328A DO RIGHT

35 min. ETC 1988 MS

This highly motivational program by Lou Holtz, football coach of Notre Dame, demonstrates the spirit of teamwork, a commitment to excellence both on and off the job, a strong loyalty to the organization, and a personal dedication to success. There is strong emphasis on the need for goal-setting and it is designed to renew the pride and dedication of everyone in your organization.

V0328B DO RIGHT II

23 min. ETC MS

Lou Holtz's philosophy of success in life and business is built on three principles. They are 1) Do right 2) Do your best, and 3) Treat others as you'd want them to treat you. This video expands on these principles as they relate to TEAMWORK and discusses four separate, yet inter-related, factors that foster teamwork.

V0329 I'M SHOT - THE BULLETS IMPACT

30 min. LA EDUCATIONAL MEDIA OD,DT

The purpose of this video is to prepare officers emotionally for a shooting, aided by the experiences of five officers and police psychologist Wayne R. Hill, Ph.D.

V0330A BODY LANGUAGE - POLICE HUMAN RELATIONS: NON-VERBAL BEHAVIOR

28 min. FLORIDA STATE UNIV. OD,PP

Part one of a comprehensive three-part video series to improve officer awareness, knowledge and skills in the area of body language. It is intended to provide officers with a practical understanding of the role of their own body language and that of others in the communications process. Includes a consideration of the positives and negatives of different kinds of non-verbal action involving gestures, distance and physical equipment in such routine encounters as traffic stops and other everyday field contacts.

V0330B BODY LANGUAGE - POLICE HUMAN RELATIONS: TOUCH

22 min. FLORIDA STATE UNIV. OD,PP

Part two of a comprehensive three-part video series designed to improve officer awareness, knowledge, and skills in the area of body language. It increases officer awareness of the importance of touch as a highly sensitive form of non-verbal communication, including the issue of when to initiate and avoid physical contact with others. Considers ways officers can react to unwanted intrusions into their personal space without escalating a situation and how they can influence the behavior of others by controlling aspects of their own appearance and physical position. Avoiding non-verbal displays of such emotions as anxiety and aggressiveness is considered in relation to actual problem situations.

V0330C BODY LANGUAGE - POLICE HUMAN RELATIONS: EYES

22 min. FLORIDA STATE UNIV. OD,PP

Part three of a comprehensive three-part video series designed to improve officer awareness, knowledge, and skills in the area of body language. It focuses on developing the ability to 'read' the non-verbal actions and appearance of others, as well as the importance of constantly monitoring one's own body language as an officer. Explores significance of such things as the quality of a person's voice, eye movements and facial expression as critical aspects of the body's silent language. Considers the process of 'scanning' another person for non-verbal clues to their emotional condition, as well as the selective use of 'strategic aggression' to deal with certain situations.

V0331A STREET SMART IN THE WORLD OF DRUGS - PART I

33 min. MTI DA,PP

Part one of a two-part video series (V331A, V331B) intended to help police officers do their job and stay alive by becoming street smart in the world of drugs. Experienced law enforcement officers and health care professionals share their insights and tactics and addicts discuss their opinions of police and what they do to avoid arrest. Officers are shown performing patrol activities, such as walking their beat, answering calls, and directing traffic while incorporating drug enforcement tactics. The viewer is told what to look for and how to react. Additional tactics are given for personal and vehicular searches. Behavioral characteristics of users are shown.

V0331B STREET SMART IN THE WORLD OF DRUGS - PART II

24 min. MTI

DA,PP

Part two of a two-part video series (V331A, V331B) intended to help police officers do their job and stay alive by becoming street smart in the world of drugs. This program is a thorough examination of drugs. It details their characteristics, usage, paraphernalia, and the behaviors of users. The theme stressed is that drugs by their very nature interfere with the normal thought processes and therefore make the user unpredictable and dangerous. It includes a section showing how 'crack' is made and how substances are boiled down for eventual 'shooting' into a vein. Being able to recognize paraphernalia will also lessen officers' risk of contracting AIDS and Hepatitis B.

V0474A DYNAMIC DWI INVESTIGATION - PART I

28 min. AIMS 1993 DA,IT

Alcohol-related accidents kill nearly the same number of Americans during every two-year period as the Vietnam War did ten years ago. In an effort to reduce this fatality record, this first video of a two-part series (V474A, V474B) trains police officers to identify intoxicated drivers and lists the signs of intoxication that can be seen in driving behaviors, personal appearance, performance ability and general demeanor. Salter demonstrates how to pull a suspect over and conduct a sobriety test. He focuses on apprehending drivers with blood alcohol contents of .14 percent and under. Although these drivers are more difficult to spot than very drunk drivers, the importance of catching these drivers is stressed because they are involved in about 75 percent of all accident fatalities. He also highlights some legal and ethical considerations.

V0474B DYNAMIC DWI INVESTIGATION - PART II

28 min. AIMS 1993 DA,IT

The second part of a two-part series (V474A, V474B) covers arrest procedures, effective report writing, and impairment analysis, including a very detailed account of the horizontal gaze nystagmus test.

V0475 DOMESTIC DISPUTES: AN ANALYSIS OF OFFICERS KILLED

15 min. AIMS 1993 DV

Responding to calls of domestic disputes is often the cause of assault and death among law enforcement officers. This program is the result of a ten-year study of officers who were killed while dealing with a domestic dispute situation. Actual cases are dramatized, showing how the officers were killed and the kinds of danger future officers should be prepared for when handling domestic disputes. Emphasis is made on the first minute of response being the most crucial to an officer's safety.

V0476 HAZARDOUS MATERIALS: AWARENESS FOR THE FIRST RESPONDER

22 min. INDUSTRIAL VIDEO 1991 HM

This video is the initial step in preparing personnel to react properly and stay healthy in the event of a hazmat incident. The importance of medical treatment, counseling and prosecution is also stressed.

V0488 CRIME CHECK: RETAIL MANAGEMENT

28 min. AIMS 1989 CP,PC

This informative program helps retail managers understand the problems that can occur on the job and how employees steal cash and merchandise. Various prevention methods show how to detect warning signs of on-the-job substance abuse. Experts in loss prevention, substance abuse treatment, and law enforcement are interviewed.

V0489 SILENT ALARM RESPONSE PROCEDURES

31 min. LCC 1989 CP,PC

For law enforcement use only. This video, filmed in the Lansing area, shows bank employees and law enforcement agencies practices and procedures that may be used if confronted by an armed robber. All persons involved play a critical role in the arrest and conviction of the criminal. It shows how several agencies get involved in the chase, how to be a good witness, and the victim's constitutional and statutory rights.

V0490 THE ONE MINUTE MANAGER

25 min. MTI 1986 MS

The world's most-read behavioral scientist, Dr. Ken Blanchard, teaches your management team the three core secrets of the 'people side' of management in an easy-to-follow approach. The program is cut down to the essential information and served up in 25 minutes to fit into today's tight schedules.

V0491 UNIVERSAL PRECAUTIONS: BLOODBORNE PATHOGENS

23 min. LERC 1993 FA

This program was produced to help departments meet the annual OSHA training requirement on bloodborne pathogens. This presentation focuses on why all officers must use universal precautions to protect themselves by using corrections and police-oriented scenarios.

V0492 NEW WORKPLACE, THE

46 min. QUALITY MEDIA RES. 1994 MS

In the old workplace, we expected the work we did to stay the same. Change happened when we changed our jobs. In the new workplace, we can expect the work we do to continuously change in an ongoing effort to better serve our customers. Opportunity competes with fear as our organizations down-size or transform and we each struggle with the new realities and how we fit into them. This two-part video training series brings together a distinguished collection of practitioners and researchers who are leading private and public sector organizations through these fundamental transformations.

V0493 CARS, MOTORCYCLES & A COMMON ROAD

8 min. MOTORCYCLE SAFETY 1992 DS

When you drive, you must share the road with many different types of vehicles: other cars, trucks, buses, and motorcycles. This video will show you the importance of sharing the road with motorcyclists, common places where motorists and motorcyclists collide, why a safe motorcyclist will ride in various lane positions, how to pass a motorcyclist safely, the 'two-second rule' for following a motorcyclist, and that the rider beneath the protective equipment could be your neighbor or someone you know.

V0494 RIDING WITH CONTROL

17 min. MOTORCYCLE SAFETY 1988 DS

To manage risk, you must manage time and space when riding, but that's not the entire answer; you must also manage traction. Terrific riding situations and pie-chart illustrations (detailing the traction forces at work) lead the viewer enjoyably through the learning experience.

V0495	HATE CRIMES
	17 min.	ADL	1990	CF
Local law enforcement agencies play a large role in combating and deterring hate crimes. This training video is an excellent tool to help raise awareness concerning the seriousness of hate crime and the police role in combating them.

Local law enforcement agencies play a large role in combating and deterring hate crimes. This training video is an excellent tool to help raise awareness concerning the seriousness of hate crime and the police role in combating them.

V0496	LET'S TALK DIVERSITY!
23 min.	AMERICAN MEDIA	1993		MS

The workforce has become more diverse due to increasing participation of minorities and women. This video contains seven interactive vignette situations highlighting many key issues of diversity for discussion. Some of the issues covered are affirmative action situations, religious beliefs, sexism, segregation and forced assimilation, and women and minorities. After discussing the questions posed by the on-screen narrator, your employees can effectively value diversity in your workplace. Understanding each other and overcoming differences is critical to the success of your organization.

V0497	THE ETHICAL DILEMMA
	32 min.	NAT'L INST.OF ETHICS	1993	ET

This program has been produced to allow officers to experience ethics training in real-life situations. The series includes four, 7 to 10 minute video dilemmas. Each dilemma is based on one of the three primary causes for corruption: anger, lust and greed.

V0498	THE LAST DANCE
18 min.	CORVISION	1994		DA

Every year thousands of our young people are killed or seriously injured in drunk driving accidents. 'The Last Dance' examines the life-altering consequences of driving while impaired, following a teenage couple from the first moments of a horrifying accident to desperate lifesaving attempts in the emergency room. The emotional climax of the video is reached when parents and friends arrive to discover the fate of their loved ones.

V0499	DRUG INTERDICTION ON THE HIGHWAYS
16 min.	MSHP	1994	PP,DA,LP

The main concern of officers working drug interdiction on the highway is to remove illegal drugs from the streets, out of the hands of children and society. Through a reenactment of a traffic stop and interviews with highway patrolmen, the viewer is shown how to conduct a stop using conversation to establish probable cause to search the vehicle. The viewer also learns how to obtain consent to search the vehicle. After permission to search is obtained, information on how and where to search the vehicle is presented.

V0500 INVENTING YOUR FUTURE

60 min. PACIFIC INSTITUTE 1994 MS

This video is a recording of Mr. Lou Tice speaking to a large group of business people. The presentation is inspirational and motivational. Mr. Tice describes what limits organizational and personal growth. He focuses on the psychological principles that govern organizational change and the importance of personal perception and how they effect change and personal success.

V0501 BUILDING SEARCHES FOR STREET OFFICERS

28 min. LA EDUCATIONAL MEDIA 1994 PP

For official police use only. One of the most common, yet dangerous types of situations that today's law enforcement officers will encounter is the building search. This program shows several techniques that can be used in conducting these searches. Some of the topics examined step-by-step and in detail are: preparation & proper equipment, entry rules, search procedures, weapon position, areas of responsibility and suspect encounter.

V0502 REASONS PEOPLE DROWN

25 min. L.S.A. PRODUCTIONS WA,FA

Recognizing the difference between the two basic types of water crisis, stress and drowning, may save someone's life. Factors in identifying the instinctive drowning response are discussed and drowning statistics are given. Rules to reduce accidental drowning caused by swimming, non-swimming and boating, as well as rescuing methods and the role of alcohol and drugs in drowning are considered.

V0503 IT'S NO ACCIDENT!

47 min. VISUCOM 1992 DS

The last driver training most of us received was years ago. Yet over 26 million crashes per year occur. This comprehensive four-module system builds knowledge and skills necessary for drivers to prevent crashes. The modules are designed with the flexibility to be used separately or as part of a comprehensive program. Facilitator guide and post test included.

Module A: "Controlling the Vehicle"-14 min. This module explores what the driver can and cannot control. It shows how the "Natural Laws" of Friction, Energy of Motion, and Force of Impact affect driving.

Module B: "See and Be Seen"-12 min. Demonstrates the techniques for identifying hazards, how to get and maintain space and ways of communicating the driver's presence and intent.

Module C: "Staying Out of Harm's Way"-14 min. Explores four "danger zones" and five categories of "dangerous drivers" and shows how to deal with each successfully.

Module D: "You're in Control"-16 min. This module deals with three things drivers do control: distractions, drugs and alcohol and safety belts.

V0504 RISK MANAGEMENT

24 min. INEOA 1993 DA,IT

This video program teaches you to assess the level of risk at every moment in a narcotics investigation, and then to manage those risks properly. In a lively manner, punctuated with moments of humor and drama, Sgt. Verdi explains: 1) How to supervise undercover officers 2) How to deal with confidential informants 3) How to tell when situations that seem to be going smoothly are headed for failure, and 4) How to avoid mistakes in undercover work.

V0505 WORKING UNDERCOVER: AVOIDING COMMON MISTAKES

19 min. INEOA 1993 DA,IT

Based on their years of experience in the field, Sgt. Verdi and Det. Gonzalez describe common mistakes made by undercover officers, such as underestimating the perpetrator's experience, failing to negotiate with dealers, moving too quickly from a small drug buy to a big buy. They also discuss the importance of intelligence and describe effective techniques for working with confidential informants.

V0506 SEARCH WARRANTS: LEGAL ASPECTS

20 min. INEOA 1993 DA,IT,LP

This program describes the basics of search warrants. It explains what a search warrant is, what an officer must do to obtain one, and under what circumstances a warrant is not necessary. It also covers how to prove probable cause, what a warrant does (and doesn't) permit you to search, use of dogs and searches of motor vehicles.

V0507 SAIL ON!

12 min. DETERMEN PRODUCTION 1993 MS

Bill Pinkney, at age 57, is use to challenges. He was raised in the inner-city, came from a single parent home, lived part of his life on welfare. With only a high school education, he went on to become a senior marketing executive with Revlon and achieved further success as a communications consultant. One of Bill's strongest messages is how he overcame the stereotyped image that before the age of 25 he would either be dead, on drugs or in jail. This is a story of inspiration and commitment.

V0508 SILENT WAR: INFECTION CONTROL FOR LAW ENFORCEMENT
78 min. ONGUARD 1993 FA

This is an extensive course on bloodborne and airborne pathogens. The program contains 3 VHS tapes, 6 complete lesson plans, student activities, 6 tests, transparencies, etc. This program combines scenario based video, actual film footage and commentary with textbooks and question and answer sessions. The result is increased student involvement in the learning process, which causes more to be learned and retained.

Module I: Understanding Contagious Diseases
 Session 1: Why is Infection Control Necessary?
 Session 2: Understanding the Silent Assailant
Module II: Reducing Your Risk
 Session 1: The Balancing Act
 Session 2: Arrests, Searches, Vehicle Decon
Module III: Post-Incident Procedures
 Session 1: Collecting Evidence
 Session 2: Booking and Legal Issues

V0509 OC AEROSOL USE IN LAW ENFORCEMENT
23 min. PERF. DIMENSION 1994 DT,SI

OC aerosol sprays have become the personal chemical agents of choice by a steadily increasing number of law enforcement agencies across the nation. This video takes an objective look at what OC aerosols can and cannot do. Topics of discussion include: safety, training, types of spray patterns, placement on a use of force continuum, physical effects, flammability, strength and percentage of OC, decontamination procedures, subject monitoring and medical attention and other important topics.

V0510 WORKPLACE VIOLENCE: FIRST LINE OF DEFENSE
30 min. ETC. 1994 CM

Workplace violence has exploded into the headlines. The cost of workplace violence incidents is 4.2 billion dollars annually. This video uses an interview with a convicted perpetrator as well as a compelling dramatization to communicate the impact of this problem. In addition, the program brings together two nationally recognized experts to define the problem, create awareness of the warning signs, examine the legal issues in dealing with these individuals, and outlines steps to manage these situations.

- V0511 VIOLENCE: REDUCING YOUR RISK
 28 min. ETC. 1994 CM
 Violent crime is becoming a national emergency. This video is about reducing your risk of being a victim. It teaches you how to avoid potentially violent situations, and how to form a plan of action for escape or defense if violence occurs. This program also contains the following: A street safety checklist, carjacking prevention plan, parking lot safety, verbal defense tactics, ways to recognize co-worker stress, how to develop an escape plan, victim's survival plan and concealment and cover in the workplace.
- V0512 CHOOSE NOT TO LOSE
 18 min. COOK CO STATE'S ATTY 1992 GV
 Children are so easily influenced by others. This video, narrated by NFL pro-bowler Dave Duerson, focuses on the violence that surrounds gang and drug involvement and offers positive alternatives. This program contains graphic 'street' footage and interviews with former gang members. It conveys a strong message to those who view it. It is geared for students in grades 5-12, although teachers, police and parents find it informative as well.
- V0513 NUTRITION
 14 min. ALTSCHUL GROUP 1989 OD
 Eating right is an important part of living well. A greater understanding of cholesterol, calories and important minerals such as calcium help you eat for your health. This program outlines the importance of quality vs. quantity eating. Proper dietary guidelines are also discussed.
- V0514 LAW ENFORCEMENT HEALTH & WELLNESS
 30 min. KNIGHT MANAGEMENT 1994 OD
 The information presented in this video will help you gain an understanding of the impact that nutrition and exercise have on short-term physical performance, and long-term health. Eating the right fast foods, nature's snack foods, shopping and label reading, strength development, flexibility exercises, aerobic activities, getting and staying healthy, and other relevant topics are covered in an informative and well-paced manner.
- V0515 MANAGEMENT OF AGGRESSIVE BEHAVIOR
 20 min. KNIGHT MANAGEMENT 1994 CM
 The frequency of assaults on police officers continues to rise every year. Roland Ouellete, author of the book by the same name, looks at verbal and non-verbal behavior as it relates to public safety situations. The issues of space, reactionary zone, gestures and posture, various types of conflict that people go through and a host of other subjects are discussed. This video will help officers recognize, avoid and/or minimize the problems in any confrontation.

V0516 PSYCHOLOGICAL SURVIVAL: STRESS AND BURNOUT

30 min. KNIGHT MANAGEMENT 1994 OD

Recognizing the stress that can lead to burnout can help to prevent it. This video educates law enforcement officers about stress and effective ways to deal with it. Alcoholism, police suicide and drug use are all discussed. The program provides practical solutions to stress and burnout problems.

V0517 HAZARDOUS HIGHWAYS

17 min. ALTSCHUL GROUP 1982 DS

Various possible hazardous situations are presented in this program, including encounters with emergency vehicles, and how to handle your vehicle in fog, rain, snow and at night. It also offers common sense approaches to safe highway driving for all.

V0518 TO TRY AGAIN AND SUCCEED

9 min. CRM FILMS MS

Everyone, whether they are the president of a large corporation, a sales representative in the field, or a worker on the assembly line, is sometimes faced with a new, first-time experience. Despite that person's years of preparation, a job assignment can be frightening. They haven't done it before, and they are exposed to the possibility of failure. The ego is vulnerable, but humans are of a nature to try new things when the opportunity is presented. In our parable, that first-timer in all of us is embodied in the little eaglet.

V0519 FIRE OR DON'T FIRE

28 min. AIMS 1992 FI

One of the most important responsibilities placed on a law enforcement officer is the use of a firearm. It is vital that the officer is physically prepared, mentally disciplined, and responsibly trained in the legal use of a firearm. A series of vignettes dramatizes a variety of situations an officer may encounter where the decision to fire or not to fire must be made. Officers will learn to recognize the three basic elements of imminent danger that must be present before using deadly force.

V0520 CRIMES OF OPPORTUNITY

30 min. LONG ISLAND PRODUCTS 1992 CP,PC

Things we do innocently become opportunities for others to commit crimes. Most Americans are guilty of complacency when walking the streets, using public transportation, ATM machines, or while at work. This video demonstrates precautions one can take to lower the risk of becoming a crime statistic, such as the importance of body language and what predators look for in a victim. Four situations are given, allowing the viewer to discuss ways of handling each one.

V0521 LOCKUP USA: HIGH RISK TRANSPORT

31 min. CALIBRE PRESS 1991 CO,OD

The purpose of this program is to show corrections personnel the extensive precautions necessary to effect the movement of a high-risk inmate outside the secure facility. The program details the preparations that must be taken by the transporting officers and looks at some of the things that could go wrong, and how those situations should be handled by the officers.

V0522 CHILD ABUSE: RESPONSE AND INVESTIGATION

22 min. SYNDISTAR 1992 CA,IT

One in every five children is a victim of abuse. Officers should be aware of the four types of abuse, and able to recognize the signs of each. This detailed program covers investigating the residence, interviewing the victim, examining physical evidence of abuse, interviewing the perpetrator, and taking a child into protective custody.

V0523 DOMESTIC VIOLENCE: RESPONSE AND INVESTIGATION

16 min. SYNDISTAR 1992 DV

This point-by-point program shows officers how to identify factors for probable cause, examine the scene for signs of domestic violence, properly interview those involved and offers tips for aiding and assisting victims.

V0524 DETECTING FRAUDULENT DOCUMENTS

25 min. VIDEOCAST 1994 CP,IT

This newly updated video details security features and outlines methods to determine if identification is fraudulent. You will quickly learn how to verify the most commonly counterfeited forms of federally issued U.S. identification: social security cards, I & NS cards, passports, military I.D., and U.S. Coast Guard. The program tells what to look for, step-by-step, shows detailed close-ups of each I.D. card, identifies hidden security features, and details common mistakes in fraudulent I.D.

V0525 OFF DUTY: AN ANALYSIS OF OFFICERS KILLED

17 min. AIMS 1991 DT

Many officers are killed by taking risks while off duty. Of the cases studied, most officers died intervening in business robberies. Many died attempting to catch criminals without benefit of backup or weapons, some died in acts of revenge. This program discourages off-duty investigations and acts of heroism, and suggests that the best role to take is that of a good witness.

V0526 TAKE A GOOD LOOK: DETERRENTS TO SHOPLIFTING
19 min. ETC. 1994 CP

Sales associates will see dramatizations illustrating how they can help to deter shoplifting in their store. This program takes a dynamic approach to talking with associates who have stopped shoplifters, lawyers who have prosecuted cases, shoplifters who have gone through trial, and loss prevention experts who identify increasingly clever ways in which people will steal from a store. Associates will learn how to assess their own store for the most common shoplifting problems, assess customer activity, be careful, and deter potential shoplifters.

V0527 HATE CRIMES (FBI)
19 min. FBI 1994 CF

A hate crime is a criminal offense committed against a person or property which is motivated whole or in part by the offender's bias against a race or religion.

V0528 INVESTMENT IN EXCELLENCE FOR THE '90s
THE PACIFIC INST. 1989 MS

This video and audiotape program is designed to supplement the Pacific Institute's "Investment In Excellence for the 90's" seminar presented by Lou Tice. The one hour video, 12 part audiotape and workbooks discuss practical, self-educating concepts that are directed at personal and professional goal setting and achievement. The instructional materials compare restrictive, negative ways of thinking with constructive, positive concepts that we all have at our disposal. The basic premise of this program is "If we change the way we think we can change the way we act".

V0529 THE CORRECTIONAL OFFICER: INMATE TRICKS
18 min. AIMS 1992 CO

Many inmates in correctional facilities still engage in illegal activities such as drug dealing, murder, and escape. As a result, they have devised very imaginative methods to deceive corrections officers. This program demonstrates several of the ingenious tricks inmates use to hide contraband, self-made weapons, and escape routes. It shows new and experienced officers what to watch out for in their inspections and reminds them to never take anything for granted.

V0530 HANDLING AGGRESSIVE INMATES
21 min. AIMS 1988 CO

Studies show that, sooner or later, every correctional officer will be confronted by an aggressive inmate. This program dramatizes actual confrontations in which officers were injured and demonstrates how to handle violent inmates.

V0531 CORRECTIONAL EMERGENCY RESPONSE TEAM TRAINING

8 min. AIMS 1993 CO

A Correctional Emergency Response Team (CERT) is a carefully trained group of officers who handle emergencies within a correctional facility in addition to their regular duties. This program details the complex cell entry procedure that the CERT uses to move an irate prisoner from one cell to another without physical injury to either the inmate or themselves. This procedure requires six well-equipped officers to enter the cell in formation and restrain the inmate. Their gear includes a helmet, gloves, shin guards, handcuffs and other protective equipment. Each member has an assigned position of the body to cover, such as the head, right arm, left leg, etc. Once the subdued inmate is in the new cell, each member exits in reverse order. As a security precaution, the entire episode, from the identification and role of each CERT member at the beginning to the appearance of a health official to check the prisoner at the end, is videotaped.

V0532 OFF DUTY SURVIVAL

29 min. PERF. DIMENSIONS 1994 DT,OD

Featuring Massad Ayoob, Director of the Lethal Force Institute and a Captain with the Grantham, NH Police Department, this program stresses information that every sworn officer should know when off duty. Important concerns, such as methods of concealed carry, identification problems when with your family, as well as others are covered. A number of realistic scenarios are dramatized to show what can go wrong and right when you are off duty.

V0533 SAFE WINTER DRIVING

17 min. COASTAL COMMUN. 1993 DS

Every eleven minutes someone dies in a vehicle and every eighteen seconds a driver is injured. Whenever you get behind the wheel, you are taking a risk. When you drive in the winter, your risk increases tenfold! Freezing weather, fog, rain, snow and ice create extremely hazardous driving conditions that threaten your life on the road. Winter driving requires special caution and preparation. This program will teach you how to avoid winter driving accidents, how to prepare yourself and your vehicle for winter driving, and what to do should you be stranded.

V0534 MOTOR VEHICLE AWARENESS

19 min. COASTAL COMMUN. 1992 DS

Vehicle accidents are the single largest cause of death in our country. When the act of driving becomes routine, drivers experience a false sense of security and accidents occur. This video instructs the viewer in the A,B,C,D's of Motor Vehicle Awareness: Alertness, Buckling Up, Courtesy, and Driving Defensively. Also included are tips on driving in inclement weather and keeping your vehicle in good condition. This program will help your organization protect its employees who must drive, and complement your current driver safety awareness course.

V0535 TACTICAL PATROL STRATEGIES

25 min. PERF. DIMENSIONS 1994 PP

The do's and don'ts of patrol! This program explains and demonstrates various tactical strategies that will benefit patrol officers in their duties. Back lighting, front lighting, high risk incident approach strategies, as well as other informative methods are highlighted by the re-creation of realistic incidents using actual law enforcement officers.

V0536 GANGS - TURNING THE CORNER

30 min. CALIFORNIA IMAGES 1994 GV

Narrated by James Earl Jones, this video captures in a dynamic format the people and programs that are successfully making a difference and taking back the streets from gangs. Stories and examples from across the U.S. will highlight winning approaches to confronting the gang problem. This hard hitting, upbeat program will motivate and inspire parents, educators, police, and all community members to work in partnership to take action.

V0537A WORDPERFECT 6.0 FOR WINDOWS: BEGINNING SKILLS

V0538B MICROSOFT WORD 6.0 FOR WINDOWS: INTERMED./ADVANCED

50 min. CAREERTRACK 1994 SI

This video tutorial shows you how to use Microsoft Word's advanced features to create professional word processing documents. You'll discover how easy it is to create tables to organize information and create macros to save time on your everyday tasks. You'll also learn how to share data with other applications.

V0539 GRAMMAR FOR BUSINESS PROFESSIONALS

CAREERTRACK

1993

IR

In this three-part video program, communication expert Pat Cramer demystifies the often puzzling world of grammar, word usage, sentence structure and punctuation. These are must-know guidelines designed to improve both written and spoken communication. You'll learn to organize and express your thoughts in ways that are easier for you and your listener or reader.

Volume 1 - Sentence and Paragraph Structure

Volume 2 - Punctuation

Volume 3 - Spelling and Usage

V0540 DRUG FREE ZONES - TAKING ACTION

27 min.

CA IMAGE MARKETING

1991

DA,PC

Dedicated citizens from several states talk about challenges they faced and what they did. This video motivates communities to take action against drug dealing and alcohol-related problems in schools, neighborhoods, parks and housing developments. It offers practical solutions and proven methods.

V0541 DRUGS AND YOUTH...THE CHALLENGE

23 min.

CA IMAGE MARKETING

1990

DA,JC

This program supplies information available on our children's use of drugs and alcohol, paraphernalia and symptoms of abuse. Helping kids through the puzzling maze of drug and alcohol abuse means being informed and taking action.

V0542 LIFE LINE - PREVENTING ELDER ABUSE

27 min.

CA IMAGE MARKETING

1992

CP,PC

It is estimated that only one in fourteen incidents of elder abuse ever gets reported. Most abuse goes undetected, the victim is not helped, and the abuser goes free to repeat the crime, often against the same victim. Hosted by Betty White, this timely and dramatic production not only shows what elder abuse is, but offers hope and solutions.

V0543 SAFE SCHOOLS - A GUIDE FOR ACTION

25 min.

CA IMAGE MARKETING

1991

PC

Safe schools are orderly places where students can learn and staff can teach without the threat of physical and psychological harm. Gangs, drugs and violence are all too common in today's schools. Hosted by Pat Morita, this video offers a simple proven method that your school can use to create a safe and positive learning environment.

V0544 CHAOS TO CALM...CREATING SAFE SCHOOLS

25 min. CA IMAGE MARKETING 1991 PC

Crime and violence has crept into the classroom, creating schools filled with conflict, not education...places where survival is the issue. Our number one priority should be to provide students with a safe learning environment and the key to accomplishing this is to have principals and teachers who are committed to excellence. This tape outlines methods of conflict management and constructive discipline that are necessary for producing safe schools.

V0545 COPPS: COMMUNITY ORIENTED POLICING AND PROBLEM SOLVING

28 min. CA IMAGE MARKETING 1993 CP,PC

This unique and comprehensive COPPS package includes a fifteen minute video featuring noted national experts: Chris Braiden, Superintendent of Policing, Edmonton, Alberta; Herman Goldstein, "Father of Problem Oriented Policing", University of Wisconsin; Chief Willie Williams, Los Angeles, CA; Chief Tom Porter, Portland, OR, and Chief Joe Brann, Hayward, CA.

The COPPS Source Book is a one-of-a-kind collection of articles and case studies that will help you and your agency implement COPPS. A 29 minute two-part training tape features a motivational presentation by Chris Braiden and a discussion of problem solving with Herman Goldstein.

V0546 TEN COMMANDMENTS OF DEALING WITH PEOPLE WITH DISABILITIES

26 min. ETC. 1994 OD,PC

Forty-nine million Americans have disabilities, including many of the people served and employed by your organization. Help all of your employees communicate more effectively using this video hosted by Tim Harrington, a successful businessman and disability consultant who was born with cerebral palsy.

V0547 END RESULT, THE

17 min. U.P. EMERG. SERVICES 1993 DA

This video presents graphic scenes depicting results of traffic accidents, most of which were caused by the effects of mixing alcohol and driving. Set to modern youth-oriented music, this program will hopefully serve as a deterrent to drinking and driving. The message of seatbelt use is also dispersed throughout the video.

V0548 LAW ENFORCEMENT'S RESPONSE TO DOMESTIC VIOLENCE
70 min. MSP 1995 DV,LP

Domestic violence is a crime. Eighty percent of these crimes happen in the home, to family members. The seriousness of this crime has caused a review of our effectiveness in dealing with this issue. As a result, Michigan laws have been changed to more effectively protect the victim(s), and prosecute the abuser. This video blends the legal aspect of domestic violence with related insight from a survivor, victim counselor, batterer and batterer counselor. Sgt. David Greydanus of the Michigan State Police presents the key legal points that police officers should be aware of, and the interviews provide insight into lifestyles, dual personalities, controlling behavior, myths and misconceptions.

V0549 IF ENOUGH PEOPLE CARE with Lou Holtz
28 min. VIDEO PUB. HOUSE 1994 MS

There are a few great speaking legends, and Coach Lou Holtz is one of them. In this newest motivational program, Olympic Champion Mary Lou Retton introduces Holtz and sets up the content, citing his firm belief that satisfaction and success--in football or business--"can't come from the job you're doing...but from how well you're doing the job." Liberally sprinkling his impassioned presentation with personal and professional anecdotes and humorous stories, Holtz expresses his views on what it takes to motivate and maintain success.

V0551 PPCT STRAIGHT BATON SYSTEM
23 min. LA EDUCATIONAL MEDIA 1989 DT

V0552 ABILENE PARADOX, THE
28 min. CRM 1984 MS

Based on his best-selling book, Dr. Jerry B. Harvey explains mismanaged agreement within groups--where a condition of poor communication causes counter-productive decisions. The paradox is that not all groups members are in agreement, but go along with decisions because they think the rest of the group does agree! Dr. Harvey helps you identify the phenomenon and gives strategies for coping with it. This is one of the most important training films ever made for anyone involved in group decision-making.

V0553 DISCRIMINATION: THE HIDDEN COSTS

10 min. CORVISION 1994 MS,LC

Discrimination, defined as "making a difference in treatment on a basis other than individual merit", is costing companies millions of dollars every year in the form of lawsuits resulting from sex, race, age and gender biases. Since the passage of the Civil Rights Act of 1991, victims are not only able to sue to get their jobs back and recover lost wages, but they can also sue for pain and distress and can demand punitive damages. The purpose of this film is to give employers an incentive to obey the law, to take proactive steps to prevent discrimination, rather than try to solve the problem after it occurs.

V0554 FAIRER SEX?, THE

18 min. CORVISION 1993 MS

ABC's "Prime Time Live" set out to discover whether there are daily differences in being a male versus a female in today's American society, particularly in the workplace. The results of their report about our attitudes and their consequences may surprise you. We live in a society in which gender stereotypes have been taken for granted. Yet more than half of the population faces discrimination on a daily basis. The challenge in the workplace is to eliminate discriminatory decisions and unwritten rules based on gender. Only then can men and women translate fairness into solid teamwork.

V0555 POWER DEAD-EVEN RULE, THE

36 min. CORVISION 1995 MS

For many men and women, the world would be a much simpler place if men only had to communicate with men and women only had to communicate with women. Why? Because each gender is a culture unto itself, raised with basic rules of conduct "instinctively" known to all adult members of that gender. Consequently, what seems natural to one gender culture can seem mysterious and baffling to the other. The purpose of this video is to promote the best possible communication between men and women in the workplace. As we move between male and female cultures, we sometimes have to change how we behave (we need to "speak" the language of the other gender) if we hope to make people understand what we want and need from them in any given situation.

V0556 GANGS, GUNS, GRAFFITI

30 min. PYRAMID 1989 GV

At a time when communities are becoming increasingly concerned with the widespread dangers of gangs, this video graphically visualizes the consequences of gang membership and gang violence. Through interviews with actual gang members, victims and prosecutors it presents a realistic picture of life on the streets. Targeted toward at-risk juveniles in junior and senior high school and adults who are working to combat gangs in their community, this video reveals the truth about gang loyalty, gangs and guns, drug money, and graffiti.

V0557	VEHICLE SEARCH, A
	46 min.	AIMS	IT,PP

This program provides law enforcement officers with detailed information on how to conduct an extensive search of a vehicle in order to gather evidence. Officers are encouraged to use their imagination and powers of observation to locate the specific evidence they need for a particular case. In addition to the list of items needed to conduct a complete search, officers are shown how to photograph, gather, package, mark and store evidence.

V0558	CONTACT AND COVER
28 min.	KNIGHT MGT.	1994	DT,PP

Dramatic re-enactments show the duties of a contact officer and the duties of the cover officer(s) in the same scenario. The main duty of the contact officer is to deal with the suspect while the cover officer(s) provide safety and security to the contact officer. This video was produced by the San Diego Police Department and will be effective in protecting you and your partner.

V0560	FLESH AND VIOLENCE
40 min.	PVN	1995		CO

Recognizing and preventing closed-custody homosexual assaults is the subject of this graphic dramatization. Ideal for correctional institutions, jails and police lockups, this video contains information on rapist psychology, spotting victims, detecting assaulters, methods of enticement, where/when rapes occur, how to intervene, officer responsibilities and policies/procedures.

V0561	MSP UPDATE TRAINING #6: GLADSTONE SHOOTING INCIDENT
19 min.	MSP 1995 PP,DT

Police officers assume a number of roles, all of which can result in a fatal assault. This tape is a review of a critical incident that occurred April 22, 1994 in Gladstone, MI, when a state trooper and two conservation officers were confronted by a man shooting at them with a rifle. The importance of training is stressed, as well as the key elements of survival: mental preparation, cover, communication, use of firearms and securing the scene.

V0562	DISPATCHERS - THE VITAL LINK
60 min.	LERC	1995		DI

Once thought of as just someone to answer the phone, dispatchers today are an integral part of the law enforcement team. Every day, officers rely on dispatchers to obtain the crucial information that they need when responding to a call. This program outlines the basics of the job, and contains tips that will help even experienced personnel become better dispatchers. In addition to the four video training modules, this series includes an instructor's guide with detailed information on how to handle real-life situations.

V0563 POWER OF VISION, THE
30 min. CHARTHOUSE 1993 MS

How do you and your organization think about the future? Do you have a vision that goes beyond the numbers, beyond quarterly and year-end results? A vision with power and depth is one thing all successful individuals and organizations have in common, says futurist Joel Barker. In the Power of Vision, Barker helps us understand the role vision plays in our future.

V0564 BUSINESS OF PARADIGMS, THE
38 min. CHARTHOUSE 1989 MS

Imagine the possibilities if you and your organization could anticipate change, open minds to new ideas, challenge assumptions and unleash imagination. The Business of Paradigms offers a common language to help discuss our attitudes toward the future. And whatever your field, it will change the way you think. It opens you and your organization to opportunities and solutions. If your organization is undertaking leadership training, restructuring, introducing new products or services, or any other major shift, picture the difference anticipating the future will make!

V0565 DEALING WITH DIVERSITY
26 min. AMERICAN MEDIA 1994 MS

There has never been an issue like diversity which tremendously affects people worldwide, in any organization, in any position. Because of the enormity of its importance and impact, people are calling for action to make diversity work in their organizations. But, even though discussing diversity issues is a good start, it still isn't enough to make the positive changes needed to alter attitudes and behaviors. Dealing with Diversity explains the vast elements of diversity, and goes beyond mere discussion to specific actions your employees can take in order to accept and value diversity in your organization.

V0566 INTERACTING WITH DISABLED PEOPLE
16 min. CONCEPT MEDIA OD,PC

This video provides law enforcement officers with the basic tools they need to interact in the most effective manner with disabled people. It specifically discusses interacting with individuals with developmental disabilities, hearing impairment, physical disabilities, autism, cerebral palsy, and epilepsy. How to give appropriate care to an individual who has had a seizure is also discussed. The program concludes by stating "Disabled people are most of all . . . people".

V0567 COMMON GROUND: INTERACTION WITH THE HISPANIC COMMUNITY
16 min. CONCEPT MEDIA 1990 OD,PC

This video discusses how knowledge and understanding of the cultural values of the Hispanic community by law enforcement officers can facilitate and enhance the performance of their duties. Illustrates through dramatic vignettes how contacts can to preserve the dignity of those involved, while permitting officers to gain control of the situation. Emphasis is put on the vital role that respect has in effective interactions. In addition, this video stresses how specific cultural awareness and sensitivity among officers helps them provide better service to the Hispanic community.

V0568 REACHING OUT: POLICE & GAY/LESBIAN COMMUNITY RELATIONS
16 min. CONCEPT MEDIA 1994 OD,PC

This video focuses on the responsibility of law enforcement to treat all people of the community at large with dignity and respect. It emphasizes the importance of learning about the gay and lesbian community just as with any other special population or minority group. Included are interviews with law enforcement officers, both gay and straight, members of the gay and lesbian community, and concerned parents.

V0569A GOING TO COURT, PART I: WHAT TO EXPECT
20 min. STATE BAR OF WI 1988 LP

This training video covers the physical layout of the courtroom, the key personnel and the proceedings. The basic steps in a civil case are presented, covering opening statements, presenting the evidence, direct examinations, leading questions, cross-examination and redirect.

V0569B GOING TO COURT, PART II: WHAT'S EXPECTED OF YOU
19 min. STATE BAR OF WI 1988 LP

Part II of the Going to Court program discusses being a good witness and what that entails. These are some of the areas that are covered: a good impression counts, how to dress, formalities, going to the witness stand, answering questions, being prepared.

V0570 PREPARING YOUR EXPERT WITNESS
40 min. STATE BAR OF WI 1990 LP

This video deals with the role of the expert witness in the courtroom today. Specialists who will be testifying will obtain helpful advice on the rules of discovery, how to protect yourself from discovery, expert opinions, depositions and trial preparation.

V0571A MADNESS ON THE STREET: POLICE RESPONSE TO MENTAL ILLNESS

30 min. WALKABOUT PRODUCTION 1994 MI

This video is designed to educate police officers about factual issues of mental illness, how to recognize signs/symptoms of these brain diseases and gives suggestions on how to respond by giving officers sufficient information to make informed decisions. Three reenactments based on documented cases are dramatized. As segments one and two conclude "stop-pause-video" will be seen on the screen, allowing time for classroom discussion and participation.

V0571B MADNESS ON THE STREET: POLICE RESPONSE TO CHRONIC POLICE TRAUMA SYNDROME

30 min. WALKABOUT PRODUCTION 1994 OD,MI

In recent years, more officers have lost their lives by their own hand than killed in the line of duty. Why? This tape has been developed to assist law enforcement across the country in dealing with the psychological stress associated with their profession. The two reenactments are based on documented cases. The first centers around a veteran cop who finds himself unable to bear the stress after witnessing a murder/suicide. Following each dramatization, Dr. Jerry Lemier presents signs, symptoms of PTSD and Severe Depression and treatment available. In conclusion, a segment with Dr. Lemler and Laura McNally introduces the term "chronic police trauma syndrome", and offers suggestions for psychological support services for law enforcement agencies.

V0572 BUCK SAVAGE SERIES

35 min. ARIZONA PEACE O.T.C. MO

Buck Savage--the epitomy of professionalism, the kind of police officer every recruit strives to be--NOT!!! Buck's outrageous behavior can serve as a "reverse-teaching" technique. Whatever Buck does, do the opposite! This series of vignettes is a good meeting opener showing a lighthearted spoof of law enforcement ethics.

V0573A DIVERSITY: CROSSING THE LINES - MAKE CONTACT

24 min. CONCEPT MEDIA 1993 MS

Part one of a three-part series (V573A, V573B, V573C) illustrates both the historical and contemporary immigrant experience, helping viewers develop an appreciation of the difficulties and challenges of adapting to a new land with a new language and customs. Explores the root reasons for prejudice and stereotyping in the U.S. society.

V0573B DIVERSITY: CROSSING THE LINES - MAKE A MOVE

30 min. CONCEPT MEDIA 1993 MS

Part two of a three-part video series (V573A, V573B, V573C) examines the process by which individuals in society acquire prejudice and stereotyping and the negative effects of these on others. Includes discussion on racial and ethnic jokes and inter-racial dating. Uses dramatic vignettes and the personal stories of those who have experienced prejudice, as well as archival film clips which illustrate the media's role in stereotyping.

V0573C DIVERSITY: CROSSING THE LINES - MAKE A DIFFERENCE

30 min. CONCEPT MEDIA 1993 MS

The third part of a three-part video series (V573A, V573B, V573C) shows how prejudice and racism are tolerated by those in positions to make positive changes. Showcases different communities and programs which have been successful in their effort to increase understanding between diverse ethnic and cultural groups.

V00574 DRUGS IN BLACK AND WHITE

41 min. CORVISION 1995 DA

Fueled by stories in the media, and perhaps also by their tendency toward denial, many people believe that America's drug problem is confined mainly to the inner cities. This program shows that to be false. Through statistics and interviews with Atlanta-area teenagers and their parents, reporter-narrator Collin Siedor reveals that drug use among suburban white teens is far more widespread than is commonly reported. This documentary also examines how black and white teenagers and their families are harmed by false assumptions and stereotypes about drug use.

V0575 DRUG TRAFFICKERS' HIDING PLACES IN UNALTERED VEHICLES

67 min. HORNBECKS 1995 PP,IT,DA

This video features dozens of hidden compartments for hiding drugs in factory-produced vehicles which have not been altered. Your narrator is an ex-mechanic and deputy sheriff who confesses to letting too many drug transporters go before he learned of the numerous compartments available to hide drugs. Brake drums, air cleaners, head liners, seats, trunks, rocker panels, tires and many other places on a vehicle may conceal illicit drugs. This is literally, "inside" information.

V0576 TUBERCULOSIS: OSHA/CDC GUIDELINES - FIRST RESPONSE

20 min. LONG ISLAND PROD. 1994 FA

From the early 1800's to the middle of this century, the "White Plague", as Tuberculosis was called, killed more people than any other infectious disease. With the development of effective drug treatment in the 1950's, the fight against TB became so successful that by the 1960's TB transmission was no longer a significant health problem. However, over the last ten years, there has been a major resurgence of TB. It has become a major health problem, especially for First Responders who come into contact with people more apt to carry the bacteria: people with AIDS, drug users, people emigrating from countries where TB is prevalent, people in prisons, homeless shelters, and residential care facilities for the elderly. This program addresses how TB is spread, how to identify those with TB, how to prevent contracting the disease and how to prevent its further spread.

23 min. FILMS FOR THE HUMANS 1995 MI

Everyone is exposed to some form of mental illness, observing if not undergoing what can range from a minor annoyance to a serious affliction. This program describes the most common mental illnesses: phobias; anxiety attacks; nervous breakdowns; and schizophrenia, the most insidious and complex of mental afflictions. Although there is much we have yet to learn about them, mental illnesses are increasingly being deciphered by scientific and medical research.

V0578 SUICIDE AND THE POLICE OFFICER

39 min. FILMS FOR THE HUMAN. 1992 OD

This program, produced by the New York City Police Foundation, focuses on the underlying problems - alcohol or drug abuse, severe relationship problems - that can lead to suicide. Police officers, trained to appear invulnerable and in control, are less likely to admit they need help, and are therefore at greater risk of suicide. This moving program provides a forum for understanding and perhaps ameliorating the pressures that lead to suicide for those in positions of control.

V0579 COPS ON THE EDGE

50 min. A&E HOME VIDEO 1995 OD

More police officers take their own lives every year than die in the line of duty. Investigative Report asks: Has the stress of enforcing the law in the 1990's simply become too much for today's officers? In this stark and disturbing expose, real-life police officers go right to the heart of the matter by talking candidly about the realities of life on the streets. Their stories are graphic, gritty, and impossible to ignore, as they reveal why suicide seems to be the only answer to the pain they endure. Find out the shocking statistics and the possible solutions to this overwhelming national epidemic in COPS ON THE EDGE.

V0580 PROFESSIONAL C.P.R.

34 min. KINETIC, INC. 1993 FA

This first aid training video covers all aspects of Basic Life Support including airway adjuncts, barrier devices and disease transmission during training.

V0581A GEORGIA STATE TROOPER LETHAL FORCE INCIDENT

24 min. IN THE LINE OF DUTY 1995 PP,DT

Segment 1 covers a traffic stop on a Georgia interstate in which a State Trooper was involved in a lethal force incident. The segment runs 19:00. Segment 2 covers the critical issue of back-up. It includes several short video segments showing how officers who did not call for back-up found themselves in potentially lethal situations. This segment runs 5:15. Both segments fit easily into any training scenario, be it in-service, academy or roll call.

V0581B SAN DIEGO TANK INCIDENT

26 min. IN THE LINE OF DUTY 1995 DT,PP

Segment 1 (20 min) deals with an ordinary day that became extraordinary for the San Diego Police Dept. An inebriated San Diegan who had prior military experience was able to drive an M-60 Series tank from an open National Guard Armory. The ensuing 20-minute chase presented exceptional challenges for officers before the incident was resolved. Segment 2 provides early information on a high-speed chase which led to multiple officer deaths in Detroit. It provides vital interactive "bullet points," for discussion. Also, this segment includes interactive questions you can incorporate for increased officer awareness of the many ramifications that occur when police departments become involved in high-speed chases.

V0581C THE NEGOTIATION

27 min. IN THE LINE OF DUTY 1995 CM,PP

Segment 1 (6min.) covers a lengthy negotiation with a suicidal young man by the Maryland Heights, MO Police Department. This situation was hampered by thousands of Grateful Dead fans trapped between the concert site and the incident. Segment 2 (7:30 min.) deals with the negotiation techniques used in this incident, as well as with the innovative aspects of the negotiation. Segment 3 (7 min.) covers the lessons learned. Maryland Heights admits it could not do everything "by the book" in order to successfully resolve this situation. Segment 4 (4:30 min) is a follow-up to Program 1, discussing under what circumstances an officer may "frisk" a suspect.

V0581D THE SHOOTING OF TPR. COATES

32 min. IN THE LINE OF DUTY 1995 DT,PP

The first fifteen minutes of this tape is devoted to a detailed study of the shooting death of South Carolina State Trooper Mark Coates on November 20, 1992. The incident was captured entirely on Trooper Coates' cruiser camera, and has become one of the most powerful law enforcement incidents ever recorded on video. The incident covers the initial low-risk traffic stop and the ensuing events leading to the trooper's death. The seven minute Aftermath describes what happens when back-up arrives, supported by the vivid recollections of Tpr. Coates' fellow officers. The last portion of the video contains important training issues and questions that can be used for discussion. The video "Richard Blackburn Interview" (V581P) is a follow-up segment to this video.

V0581E IRATE MOTORIST

24 min. IN THE LINE OF DUTY 1996 PP

We begin with Maine State Police Trooper Stephen Murray, who stops a motorist for driving 29 miles over the speed limit. After running a license check, Murray learns the motorist has two prior speeding convictions, and before returning to the motorist, double checks to make sure his cruiser's video camera is on. It is not. He turns it on and this is where the tape picks up. As Murray approaches the vehicle, you may notice the driver's disposition right away; he is very negative and hostile, and obviously, the driver denies he was speeding and becomes even more enraged. You may also notice the trooper's behavior throughout the incident. His ability to remain calm and composed is key; it likely kept the motorist from attempting an assault or other physical action. The trooper displays a high degree of tolerance: he lets the driver vent about the increased cost of living and he even lets the driver get away with swearing and cursing and making rude remarks aimed directly toward the trooper himself. IT MUST BE NOTED THAT THE TROOPER'S SARCASTIC ATTITUDE IS NOT WHAT THE MICHIGAN STATE POLICE TEACH.

V0581F GUN-WIELDING WOMAN

22 min. IN THE LINE OF DUTY 1996 DT,PP

The first segment of this video covers the incident that takes place in Kern County, California. A female driver passed a Sheriff's Deputy at 70+ mph. Chase was immediately given and continued for more than 10 minutes. After attempting to negotiate the woman's surrender, she was shot. The second segment covers the aftermath. The shooting was ruled within departmental guidelines but the local television station had caught much of the incident on video and thus began the deluge of call to the Kern County Sheriff's Department.

V0581G IDAHO PURSUIT

26 min. IN THE LINE OF DUTY 1996 DT,PP

This volume covers an incident that began in Lewiston, Idaho, late in December 1995. It involves a high-speed pursuit following a bank robbery, and ends in a dramatic shootout where one of the suspects was killed. As you view this pursuit, keep in mind that officers from several counties worked together in this pursuit, as the suspect vehicle passed through many Idaho jurisdictions. Also keep in mind that communication to dispatch was disrupted because one of the radio repeater stations near Lewiston had been destroyed in a recent fire. However, an alert dispatcher on duty used multiple telephone lines and a radio to maintain constant communications.

V0581H IDAHO PURSUIT FOLLOW-UP

22 min. IN THE LINE OF DUTY 1996 DT,PP

This video of In The Line Of Duty will be different from any other that has been produced so far. It is an extensive follow-up to Idaho Pursuit (V581G). It is believed by In The Line Of Duty producers that it contains enough valuable training material to merit its own edition. Segment 1 is a review of the Idaho Pursuit. Segment 2 is a review by a technical advisor on how the situation was handled. Segments 3 and 4 are epilogues. The last section shares letters and questions from previous editions of L.O.D.

V0581I JACK IN THE BOX

26 min. IN THE LINE OF DUTY 1996 DT,PP

Review of in-car footage of an armed robbery suspect found hiding in the trunk of a suspect vehicle during the course of a high risk stop in the city of Livonia, Michigan, in December 1995.

V0581J CAR SHOW SHOOTING

29 min. IN THE LINE OF DUTY 1996 PP,DT

A double homicide had taken place earlier in Berk County (PA), where an elderly man was beaten and shot to death, and his wife was beaten to death. Shortly thereafter, 35 year old Stephen Ficula of New Jersey was on his way to the car show in Carlisle, but was having trouble with his Ryder truck. He was assisted by a state police officer who noted Ficula's destination and even jotted down Ficula's vendor space number in his notes. The officer later heard about the murders and learned that Ficula was a prime suspect. He alerted the Carlisle P.D., and the fact that he was able to provide Ficula's vendor spot was extremely helpful. Officers attempted to arrest but he became angry and started throwing car parts. An officer was injured and at that time police fired upon the suspect, striking him six times and killing him.

V0581K SAFEWAY HOSTAGE INCIDENT

32 min. IN THE LINE OF DUTY 1996 PP,DT

A disturbed 33-year old woman, after several days and nights of drinking and ingesting crack cocaine, takes a female clerk hostage at a Safeway grocery store in Renton, Seattle suburb of approximately 45,000. It is a "spur-of-the-moment" decision in which the hostage taker, Holly Patterson, grabs a butcher knife and accosts checker Dee Brunson. Patterson appears bent on forcing a "suicide by police" and has made certain the area news media is alerted to her intentions. She recently had been arrested for several DUIs, lost her nursing job, and was a heavy abuser of alcohol and drugs. The first uniformed officers arrive after being alerted by the manager of the Safeway store, and upon quickly assessing the situation, order the evacuation of the store. After over an hour of futile negotiation efforts by the officers, the local SWAT team is summoned. Some rather confusing communications takes place between the uniformed officers, negotiator and SWAT Unit members, but the situation is eventually placed in the hands of the SWAT unit.

V0581L THE HOSTAGE-TAKER TALKS/PEPPER MACE DEMO

30 min. IN THE LINE OF DUTY 1996 OD,CM,DT

This video includes in-depth interviews with offenders whose criminal acts have been profiled in IN THE LINE OF DUTY. Features a prison interview with Holly Patterson, the hostage-taker whose crime was detailed in "Safeway Hostage Incident". Provides insight into the thought processes and personality of an individual who has committed a major crime. A lively debate is included about introducing pepper mace to officers so they can become aware of and familiar with its potency, in the event the spray is needed in an actual crisis situation.

V0581M HIT AND RUN

29 min. IN THE LINE OF DUTY 1996 PP

Outlines two incidents where troopers were struck by passing motorists while conducting routine traffic stops. Both of the incidents are captured on an in-car video camera.

V0581N DUI ANALYSIS

34 min. IN THE LINE OF DUTY 1997 PP,IT,DA

This video provides an overview of DUI enforcement - techniques and safety considerations are discussed. The philosophy and need for consistent enforcement is also discussed. Driving under the influence of other drugs is also included as well as report writing considerations.

V0581O CONVENIENCE STORE ROBBERIES DECLINE

32 min. IN THE LINE OF DUTY 1997 PC

This video provides information on how a community can approach problem solving. The problem in this video centers around convenience store robberies and the subsequent passing of an ordinance in Gainesville, Florida.

V0581P RICHARD BLACKBURN INTERVIEW

35 min. IN THE LINE OF DUTY 1997 FI,PP,OD
This video is a follow-up segment to the original shooting incident video entitled "Shooting of South Carolina Trooper Mark Coates" (V581D). This segment is an interview with the motorist, Richard Blackburn, who gunned down Trooper Coates and is serving a life sentence for his crime.

V0581Q GUN SAFETY/311 NON-EMERGENCY

29 min. IN THE LINE OF DUTY 1997 FI
Live footage of an accidental discharge of a weapon being retrieved by an officer. Safety considerations for the safe handling of confiscated weapons is discussed. The second portion of the video outlines a 311 non-emergency project in Baltimore.

V0581R HALLOWEEN RIOTS

33 min. IN THE LINE OF DUTY 1997 RI
This video provides an overview of a riot at Southern Illinois University in 1994. The riot, involving hundreds of students, lasted only 24 minutes. There is an excellent discussion regarding the incident and the importance of critical incident planning is presented at the conclusion of the video.

V0581S PURSUIT NABS NAKED COWBOY

30 min. IN THE LINE OF DUTY 1997 DA,PP
This video outlines a stop after a pursuit of an OUIL driver. The officers discuss high risk tactics and the use of a canine. The driver of the suspect vehicle is armed with a rifle and only wearing "cowboy boots".

V0581T VEST SAVES DEPUTY'S LIFE

33 min. IN THE LINE OF DUTY 1996 DT,PP
This video provides an overview of a shooting of a deputy on a traffic stop. Tactics are discussed as well as the role of the ballistic vest resulting in saving the deputy's life.

OV581U OFFICER KILLED/RAIL SAFETY

28 min. IN THE LINE OF DUTY 1997 DT,OD
This video provides an overview of an officer that was killed in the line of duty by a train while out on foot along a railroad track. Awareness of the safety issues while working near or on railroad tracks is heightened.

V0581V GANG VIOLENCE STOPPED "LORDS OF CHAOS"

30 min. IN THE LINE OF DUTY 1997 GV,JC
This program provides an overview of the murder of a high school band director by members of a self-proclaimed cult or militia called the "Lords of Chaos". It covers the investigation and signs of gang and other covert activity.

V0581W TROOPER KNIFE FIGHT

30 min. IN THE LINE OF DUTY 1997 DT,PP

This video covers a surprise knife attack by a federal fugitive on Trooper Mike Ralston of the Georgia State Patrol. The attack and the trooper's response is detailed along with lessons on search, safety, and following instinct.

V0581X ST. PETERSBURG RIOTS/CROWD CONTROL

39 min. IN THE LINE OF DUTY 1996 RI

This video provides an overview of the incident that resulted in a riot in St. Petersburg. The film discusses the incident, how it was handled, and provides questions for viewers to consider when reviewing their crowd control policies and procedures.

V0581Y CHILD ABDUCTION STOPPED BY DEPUTIES

30 min. IN THE LINE OF DUTY 1997 DT,PP

After an abduction and attempted drowning of a child is stopped, questions like "shoot to kill or not" and "what is the final straw before verbal communication or verbal 'judo' transforms to force" are analyzed. Alternative tactics for reaching the child and stopping the subject are addressed.

V0581Z LAW ENFORCEMENT AND THE NEWS MEDIA

36 min. IN THE LINE OF DUTY 1997 OD,PC

Dealing with the media is a critical element for every rank in law enforcement. A competitive and frenzied media can put the police and the department to the test by asking questions, taking pictures, and putting on pressure. This program outlines the relationship between law enforcement and the media and specifically details how to deal effectively with the media in major and routine incidents alike.

V0581AA PERPENDICULAR SHOOT

42 min. IN THE LINE OF DUTY 1998 DT,PP

Sheriff's deputies in North Carolina resort to lethal force after a passenger in a vehicle stopped for erratic driving and lane change violations reaches for a gun. This is an extraordinary incident completely captured on cruiser cam in which two deputies firing from diagonal positions fatally injure the subject. There are innumerable lessons to be learned regarding safe traffic stops and being prepared for the unexpected.

V0581AB DOMESTIC VIOLENCE

58 min. IN THE LINE OF DUTY 1998 DV

Domestic violence shows the worst our society has to offer. The scene is always ugly, emotions are high, and there is danger. Increasingly, progressive police departments are learning that intervention is the key to dealing with domestic violence. They are learning, intervention saves lives while also helping prevent the next generation of batterers. That's because children from abusive homes are more likely to become abusers themselves.

V0581AC HOOD RIVER MULTI-SPEED CHASE

31 min. IN THE LINE OF DUTY 1998 PP,DS

This program combines many elements law enforcement officers can face in a vehicle pursuit. During the course of this incident, Oregon sheriff's deputies and police officers were faced with a high-speed pursuit, a low-speed pursuit, and a chase that included everything from smooth, paved roads to winding, mountainous dirt roads. It also encompasses a number of vital lessons and officer safety elements which will be of interest to all agencies.

V0581AD SAN FRANCISCO FIREFIGHT

47 min. IN THE LINE OF DUTY 1998 PP,CF,DT

The 30 minute incident happened at 6:30 PM on a Sunday evening in November at the intersection of Pine and Franklin in San Francisco. It was a 406 call (Officer Down). Officer James had confronted 37 year old Victor Lee Boutwell, a suspected carjacker. Boutwell, later described as "a survivalist gun freak", fired at Guelff. In the exchange of shots which followed, Officer Guelff was fatally shot in the eye. Boutwell was dressed in fatigues and full body armor, including a kevlar helmet. He carried five assault rifles, five pistols and 1,000 rounds of ammunition. In addition, he carried black powder and fuses, a police scanner, and a muzzle flash suppresser. Some 128 San Francisco Police Officers responded. In the ensuing fire fight, at least 250 rounds were exchanged before Boutwell was killed by a Special Ops sniper.

V0581AE CONTACT AND COVER

38 min. IN THE LINE OF DUTY 1998 CF,DT,FI

Two San Diego Officers were slain in a domestic violence incident in the mid-80's and in the same time period two additional officers died in the infamous Grape Street Park incident. These lethal incidents and others led San Diego to adopt ironclad policies on officer safety which they call "Contact and Cover."

V0581AF OFFICERS ASSAULTED/ WATER SAFETY/ DENVER FUGITIVE APPREHENSION PROGRAM

37 min. IN THE LINE OF DUTY 1998 DT,DA,WA

This edition of In the Line of Duty focuses on two incidents in Corpus Christi's sobriety testing room at the county jail. In the first incident, a subject attacked an officer with a knife he had managed to sneak into the jail. In the second, the testing officer was assaulted by an inebriated subject. This program also features water training tips from Corpus Christi, and a special segment on a highly successful fugitive apprehension program in Denver.

V0581AG SAFE STOPS IN TRAFFIC, PASSENGER SIDE APPROACH

30 min. IN THE LINE OF DUTY 1998 DS,PP,DT

Just getting out of your cruiser may be an officer's most dangerous assignment. It can be heavy vehicular traffic, poor weather conditions, old and narrow roadways, a drunk driver lured by flashing overheads or weaving down the highway, or someone who simply does not like peace officers. This program addresses these types of situations and some of the current training that is helping officers be better prepared when they exit their vehicles.

Lesson segments included in this video are as follows: recognizing a heart attack; adult, child and infant CPR; two-rescuer CPR; injuries; controlling external bleeding; bandaging; immobilizing head, neck, and back injuries; splinting; immobilizing muscle and bone injuries; medical emergencies; automated external defibrillation.

V0673 SAM SPLINT TRAINING

30 min. THE SEABERG COMPANY 1997 FA

This video provides training on the use of the Sam Splint, a flexible, versatile splinting material.

V0674A DOMESTIC VIOLENCE: THE LAW ENFORCEMENT RESPONSE

31 min. LERC 1998 DV

This is the first video of a four-part video series. It introduces the special issues and problems that domestic assault cases present to responding officers. Part 1, "The Changing Role of Law Enforcement", includes several interviews with prosecutors and law enforcement experts in this field. Part 2, "Battering: The Dynamics of an Abusive Relationship", is an overview of abusive relationships.

V0674B DOMESTIC VIOLENCE: THE LAW ENFORCEMENT RESPONSE

55 min. LERC 1998 DV

This is the second video of a four-part video series. It contains eight 5-10 minute vignettes depicting officers responding to domestic assault calls. These responses are intended to be realistic rather than perfect. The scenes are used as jumping-off points for discussions on the application of state law, department policies, and good law enforcement practice. Participants critique each response, identifying the strong points and suggesting improvements.

V0674C DOMESTIC VIOLENCE: THE LAW ENFORCEMENT RESPONSE

30 min. LERC 1998 DV

This is the third video of a four-part video series. It describes how to write a thorough domestic violence-related arrest and investigative report. Part 1, "I Can't Take It Anymore!" is narrated by Duluth's chief prosecutor and follows two Duluth police officers in a simulated call. In Part 2, "Writing the Investigation and Arrest Report", a prosecutor covers each item needed to write a good report and provides the rationale for each.

V0674D DOMESTIC VIOLENCE: THE LAW ENFORCEMENT RESPONSE

51 min. LERC 1998 DV

This is the fourth video of a four-part video series. It contains excerpts from interviews with experts in the domestic violence prevention field and addresses issues such as: the dynamics of an abusive relationship, establishing probable cause, establishing self-defense, strangulation, stalking, recanting, dual arrests, and investigation.

V0675 HOMICIDE CRIME SCENE PRESERVATION AND HANDLING

20 min. AIMS MULTIMEDIA 1997 LP,IT

Instructs patrol officers on their proper role in the investigation of a homicide crime scene. The program points out common errors made and shows the correct procedures to follow when a patrol officer comes upon the scene of a homicide. How to secure the crime scene, how to avoid contamination of evidence, and how to protect and obtain various types of physical evidence at a crime scene are among the topics covered.

V0676 INITIAL BURGLARY INVESTIGATION

22 min. AIMS MULTIMEDIA 1997 IT

This program will stimulate new recruits and veteran officers to evaluate their procedures, examine their attitudes, and re-examine the effectiveness of their performance. As three investigations are portrayed, the importance of officers' observations, judgment, curiosity, and questioning techniques are reinforced.

V0678 INTERPERSONAL COMMUNICATIONS

25 min. AIMS MULTIMEDIA 1997 CO,CM,OD

Set in a custody environment, this program demonstrates how an officer's mannerisms and body language can affect the outcome of a situation. Dramatized conversations between officers and prisoners demonstrate how poor communication skills can create problems. Viewers learn specific communication techniques that will make them more effective on the job.

V0679 ASSIGNMENT: PROSTITUTE DECOY

9 min. AIMS MULTIMEDIA 1997 IT,PP

The importance of staying safe is stressed in this program as it teaches officers how to be prostitute decoys and how to work cooperatively with backup officers to produce arrests. Restricted to law enforcement viewing only.

V0680 DEADLY FORCE

50 min. CALIBRE PRESS 1995 CF

When a suspect or civilian dies at the hands of a police officer, FBI agent, or other government official, Americans lose faith in the law enforcement system. This program looks at why these incidents are becoming more common by exploring the facts behind three recent, lethal encounters. Included are investigations of the 1985 MOVE bombing in Pennsylvania, the Ruby Ridge shoot-out, and the stand-off between the ATF and Branch Davidians in Waco, Texas.

V0681 COP KILLERS

50 min. CALIBRE PRESS 1995 CF

More police officers are killed in the line of duty today than ever before. In Chicago, a man killed an officer because he had been given too many traffic tickets. In New York, a drug lord ordered the execution of a cop guarding a witness. American Justice looks into some of the most recent cases involving the murders of officers to find the root of the problem and whether this problem can be contained.

V0682 PRISON BOUND

78 min. CALIBRE PRESS 1997 GV

Total immersion into the gangbanger mind-set, LA black, Hispanic, and white gang members speak vividly about their criminal pasts, drive-bys, prison experiences, violent street life, cops, weapons, war wounds, tattoos, and warped outlook. One thinks any officer who kills a 'banger' should get life. Contains raw language and dangerous thinking.

V0683A COPS ON TRIAL: FRIENDLY FIRE IN THE SUBWAY

50 min. CALIBRE PRESS 1996 CF

New York City police officer Peter Del-Debbio was tried for firing five bullets at an undercover transit officer in the New York subway in August, 1994. Del-Debbio, who is white, was off duty and waiting for a train when he saw Desmond Robinson, an African American, running toward him with a gun. Del-Debbio, thinking he was confronted, opened fire. Publicity about the incident could have fanned the flames of racial tension in the city.

V0683B COPS ON TRIAL: THE MURDER OF EMOGENE

50 min. CALIBRE PRESS 1995 CF

Former police officer Mike Chapel is charged with robbing and murdering a grandmother named Emogene Thompson. When Emogene died, Chapel was in the midst of investigating a burglary in her trailer.

V0683C COPS ON TRIAL: SCAPEGOAT OR MURDERER?

50 min. CALIBRE PRESS 1996 CF

Maurice Cassotta, a 14-year veteran of the Valdosta, Georgia police force, was accused of killing his former girlfriend, Donya Jones, and their two-year-old son. Because the Valdosta police believed the deaths to be a murder-suicide, they cleaned up the scene. When the autopsy revealed that Donya had been strangled, they began to investigate the case with most of the evidence destroyed. One of the pieces of evidence that did remain were pieces of skin that were found under Donya's fingernails, as she presumably scratched her killer in the struggle.

V0684 CONFLICT RESOLUTION

27 min. ATR INC. 1992 CM

The program consists of two parts dramatizing two different sets of supervisor-employee interactions. Each set features a unique method for resolving conflicts. Part 1, which consists of three dramatizations, illustrates the use of a "constructive confrontation" intervention. Part 2, which consists of three additional dramatizations, illustrates the use of a "behavior modification" intervention.

V0685 STRESS MANAGEMENT: A PRACTICAL APPROACH

18 min. ATR INC. 1997 MS,OD

This video will increase employee understanding of the ways unmanaged stress affects their health, productivity, and personal lives and gives tools which can help them take control of their stress levels.

V0686 STRESS AND THE DISPATCHER...A DEADLY COMBINATION

225 min. PSCS 1995 DI,OD

This video introduces the sources of dispatcher stress and instructs all communications personnel how to rate their own resistance to distress and increase their stress awareness. It introduces proven methods for controlling the stresses faced by communicators on a daily basis. The following topics are covered: stress defined; the "stress response"; sources of distress; consequences of mismanaged stress; overview of "burnout"; and proven methods for stress management.

V0687 RADIO DISPATCHING GUIDELINES

60 min. PSCS 1997 DI

This video presents valuable information that will help dispatchers be sound and in control with an air of professionalism rather than indecision and hesitation. They'll learn proper radio message formats, how to avoid bad radio habits, effective transmission guidelines, and minor radio problem troubleshooting techniques.

V0688 DISPATCHER SKILL BUILDING

109 min. PSCS 1997 DI

This video outlines critical traits and characteristics needed for a professional dispatcher as well as "tried and tested" methods for improvement in each critical area. Covers critical roles and responsibilities, specific techniques for improving performance, becoming a true dispatching professional, and developing professional pride and self-esteem.

V0689 TELEPHONE TECHNIQUES FOR DISPATCHERS

90 min. PSCS 1997 DI

This video reminds dispatchers of the public's lack of expertise and critical need for their professional guidance through an emergency call and teaches them some of the most innovative telephone techniques available to the profession today. The following specific guidelines are presented: effective interpersonal communications techniques; active versus selective listening habits; specific calming techniques; information gathering and call processing procedures.

V0690 HAZARDOUS MATERIALS: AWARENESS FOR DISPATCHERS

90 min. PSCS 1993 DI, HM

This program is specifically designed to train and motivate police, fire, and EMS dispatching personnel with the proper handling of hazardous materials calls. The following guidelines are presented: hazardous materials identification; proper information gathering; using the DOT emergency response guidebook; response generation guidelines; coordination and support functions; and a framework for developing standard operating procedures.

V0691 HOW TO TRAIN PUBLIC SAFETY DISPATCHERS

256 min. PSCS 1992 DI

In order to have the best quality dispatching personnel, agencies need to invest in the development of their trainers. In order to protect against liability, trainers need documented credential, beyond years of job experience. Qualified trainers insure a higher success rate among their respective trainees. Recognizing these specific needs, this four-video program covers the following guidelines for trainers: establishing training goals; targeting training; development of training programs; the role of the trainer and desired traits; specific teaching and learning methods; and how to evaluate training programs.

V0692 RESPONDING TO HIGH RISK CALLS

11 min. AIMS MULTIMEDIA 1997 PP

All high risk calls should be handled as potentially dangerous situations. This program demonstrates the entire procedure law enforcement officers should follow when called to the scene of a situation such as a bank robbery in progress. The "Five C's" are explained: Contain, Control, Communicate, Coordinate, and Command. Also included are how to coordinate officer response while traveling to a location, where to situate the responding units to ensure efficient surveillance of the location, how to respond to individuals exiting the building, and when and how to secure the site after suspects have been apprehended.

V0693 LOW RISK PULLOVER AND APPROACH

13 min. AIMS MULTIMEDIA 1997 PP

A low-risk stop has the potential at any time to turn into a dangerous situation for the officers involved. This program is designed to acquaint the patrol officer with the techniques of the one and two-person low-risk pullover and approach. Areas covered include how to pull over the violator, where to park the patrol vehicle, how to approach the violator, the role that each officer should play in a two-person stop, and what to watch for during the entire procedure.

V0694 WORKPLACE VIOLENCE: WHEN THE SHOOTING STARTS

22 min. AIMS MULTIMEDIA 1995 CM,MS

Workplace violence has become an all-too-common occurrence in today's society. All employees should be aware of its warning signs and should receive training in how to respond to violent incidents at work. This program addresses violence in the workplace, particularly the violence of handgun assaults. It suggests methods of screening prospective employees, lists warning signs of possible violent behavior, and illustrates survival skills which can be employed in the case of an armed assault at the workplace.

V0695 HOSTAGE OFFICER SURVIVAL

82 min. CALIBRE PRESS 1998 DT

It's a subject officers rarely talk about - until it's too late: how to survive if you're taken hostage while on- or off-duty, on the street, in jail or in prison. Based on over two years' research, this video incorporates invaluable lessons learned by over 70 officers who have been taken hostage and lived. Contains the following information: 1) How to use hostage-taker motives as psychological leverage; 2) Vital communication tactics for hostage officer and backup; 3) Do's and don'ts to help you and backup defuse the threat; 4) How to read an offender's body language to time escape moves; 5) Over a dozen easy physical tactics to defeat a gun or knife; 6) Tactics to escape "total no wins like car trunk confinement ; 7) When and how to use verbal and nonverbal codes; 8) Proper deadly force decision-making; 9) Unconventional measures for desperate situations; 10) Post incident recovery from critical incident trauma; 11) The ultimate question: What are you willing to do to survive?

V0696 ABRAHAM LINCOLN ON COMMUNICATION

68 min. CAREERTRACK 1995 MS,OD

This video presents Lincoln's timeless communication principles and shows how they can work for anyone - from beginners to polished speakers. Some of what you will learn are 1) Keeping it simple: the secrets of speaking and writing in plain language 2) How to use imagery, analogies and comparisons to enhance your communication 3) Choosing stories and experiences your audience can identify with 4) How to listen attentively - or "talk less than you listen."

V0697 BEN FRANKLIN ON LEADERSHIP

23 min. CAREERTRACK 1997 MS

In this inspiring video, renowned Franklin interpreter Ralph Archbold portrays the stately founding father as he shares firsthand insights into the leadership actions and ideals that helped create "the land of opportunity." Some of what you will learn are as follows: 1) The one move that can turn an adversary into an instant ally 2) How to get everyone invested in projects and committed to team goals 3) The key to making unpopular or tough decisions.

12 min. SCHOOLCRAFT COLLEGE 1992 IR

One of the most important tools of the police department is report writing. Without the proper skills and training, important information is either left out or garbled in a report, which could serve as the only means of a prosecution. Many people depend on the police report for a factual account of an incident, which involves either a civil or criminal complaint.

V0699 HIGH RISK FELONY STOPS: 1 CAR, 2 OFFICERS

12 min. SCHOOLCRAFT COLLEGE 1993 PP

This video briefly re-examines the safety procedures that an officer is suggested to follow during high risk felony situations.

V0700 HIGH RISK FELONY STOPS

10 min. SCHOOLCRAFT COLLEGE 1992 PP

This tape is a guideline for performing high risk stops. Variables change and with that different tactics may have to be used. When doing a high risk stop, keep in mind these main points: good radio communications, proper area of the stop, placement of the police cars, officer safety, good verbal commands, and proper arrest procedures.

V0701 CRIME SCENE PRESERVATION: FIRST RESPONDER

8 min. SCHOOLCRAFT COLLEGE 1992 IT,PP

As first responders, patrol officers make important decisions when they arrive at a crime scene. This video will remind veteran police officers of the basic safe guards required when preserving evidence. The new officer should view this tape as a reinforcement of what was taught at the police academy.

V0702 SUSPECT INTERROGATION: MIRANDA RIGHTS

11 min. SCHOOLCRAFT COLLEGE 1992 IT,IR,LP

The goal of this training video is to enhance the officers' skill in human relations while presenting the advice of rights to a criminal suspect. The officer learns how to Inform the suspect of the nature of the complaint against him, how to advise the suspect of their constitutional rights under the Miranda decision, and how to obtain a waiver from the suspect to conduct the interview.

V0704 DRUG INTERDICTION

10 min. SCHOOLCRAFT COLLEGE 1992 DA,PP

As a uniformed police officer you are a front-line narcotic's investigator, and you can take an active role in narcotic's enforcement on a daily basis if you know how to effectively conduct highway drug interdiction.

V0705 FIRST RESPONDER: HAZARDOUS MATERIALS

8 min. SCHOOLCRAFT COLLEGE 1996 HM

A hazardous materials accident can occur anywhere, in a hardware store or hospital, along a major highway or runway, and in a factory or greenhouse. An officer on routine patrol may be the first to arrive at a hazardous materials situation. This program is designed to increase awareness about hazardous materials and highlight a standardized "first responder" procedure.

V0706 BLOODBORNE PATHOGENS

9 min. SCHOOLCRAFT COLLEGE 1996 FA

Joyce Williams, a nurse with Huron Valley Ambulance, gives examples of how to properly handle bloodborne pathogens and how to dispose of them. An example is given of improper handling and the dangers it presents to officers, followed up by illustrations of use of equipment used for proper disposal.

V0707 DEADLY FORCE DECISION MAKING

11 min. SCHOOLCRAFT COLLEGE 1993 LP,FI

An update from Assistant Wayne County Prosecutor Paul Bernier on use of deadly force as it pertains to fleeing felons. The case of Garner vs. Tennessee is examined as well as two court decisions handed down from Michigan, People vs. Feidler.

V0708 LEGAL UPDATE: SEARCH AND SEIZURE

8 min. SCHOOLCRAFT COLLEGE 1995 IT,LP

Discussion of search and seizure pertaining to an automobile by Assistant Wayne County Prosecutor Paul Bernier. Insight is given to how an officer would be able to develop probable cause to make a lawful search of an auto.

V0709 COMPUTER CRIME EVIDENCE PRESERVATION

7 min. SCHOOLCRAFT COLLEGE 1996 IT

Computers are standard office equipment used by almost every type of legal and illegal business. Computers are used to store data and document transactions. As a law enforcement officer you may be required to search various illegal business operations including, but not limited to, child pornography, gambling, prostitution, drugs, and money laundering. Much of the data and records pertaining to the illegal activity may be stored within a desk top computer or on computer floppy disks.

V0710 FIRST RESPONDER: COMMAND POST OPERATIONS

9 min. SCHOOLCRAFT COLLEGE 1996 SI

Command Posts are established based upon a critical incident's size or complexity. The critical incident may be, but is not limited to, a hazardous material emergency, a barricaded gunman, major motor vehicle accidents, plane crashes, and hostage situations. The Command Post may begin in a officer's patrol car and terminate in a specially-equipped, 65' command trailer.

V0711 MOTOR CARRIER LICENSES AND THE UD-10 CRASH REPORT

9 min. SCHOOLCRAFT COLLEGE 1996 DS,PP

Motor Carrier regulations and federal laws and guidelines are adopted by state and local authorities as they may apply to commercial motor vehicles. A Motor Carrier Unit is responsible for regulating commercial motor vehicles and ensuring that these vehicles operate safely on our roads and highways. Our goal is to help you better manage a commercial vehicle accident and/or incident situation. To do this, we recommend that you become familiar with the types of commercial driver's licenses and have a working knowledge of the UD-10 Crash Report.

V0712 STRESS MANAGEMENT: FAMILY CONCERNS

8 min. SCHOOLCRAFT COLLEGE 1996 OD,MS

The ultimate goal of stress management training is to help you experience career success without taking your stress home. Everyone experiences stress. Stress is defined as the response of an individual to the events and circumstances of each day. The capacity to cope with our stress quotients vary from one person to another. When you're under stressed you're bored. When you're over stressed you're hyper.

V0713 SPONTANEOUS KNIFE DEFENSE

18 min. SCHOOLCRAFT COLLEGE 1996 DT

As a law enforcement officer you will encounter many types of dangerous and potentially lethal situations involving pointed or edged weapon assaults. The goal of spontaneous knife defense training is to increase your general awareness and provide you with some basic rules of defense in order to avoid and/or control a potentially lethal attack.

V0714 WEAPONS RETENTION

14 min. SCHOOLCRAFT COLLEGE 1997 FI

Emphasis is given to maintenance of gear, along with explanation of how to care for gear, and how to adjust various types of holster for necessary retention. Explains level one, two, and three types of holsters, showing cutaway views of these holsters and how their safety features operate. It also explains the "reactionary gap" and what steps to take if reactionary gap is breached.

V0715 FIRST RESPONDER: EXPLOSIVE DEVICES

7 min. SCHOOLCRAFT COLLEGE 1997 BO

This video gives examples of explosive devices and shows the viewer what these look like. It also provides recommendations of what procedures to follow in situations involving explosive devices, from the time a threat is received, upon arrival at the scene, and awaiting the expertise of a trained bomb squad.

V0716 COMMUNITY POLICING

8 min. SCHOOLCRAFT COLLEGE 1997 PC

As law enforcement enters the 21st century, we are moving away from the old reactive model of policing that has isolated officers from the communities they serve into a new era of proactive policing. Discusses community policing with emphasis on prevention and creating partnerships in the community.

V0717 COVER AND CONCEALMENT: OFFICER SAFETY

7 min. SCHOOLCRAFT COLLEGE 1997 PP,DT

The need to use cover and/or concealment can occur anytime during daily routine duty. Under certain circumstances, occurrences such as domestic disturbances, traffic disputes and responding to alarms may often carry an increased risk to an officer's safety. Using effective cover and concealment techniques and tactics will generally help decrease an officer's risk of harm during most situations.

V0718 FIRST RESPONDER: SEXUAL ASSAULT INVESTIGATION

10 min. SCHOOLCRAFT COLLEGE 1997 IT

The first officer, also known as the First Responder, to the sexual assault crime scene is responsible for initiating a thorough investigation of the crime. The site investigation begins the moment you encounter the victim and concludes when all the evidence has been taken to the lab. There are many phases to the investigation including, but not limited to, securing the scene, interviewing the victim, and collecting evidence.

V0719 MAKING WEAPONS SAFE

16 min.

SCHOOLCRAFT COLLEGE 1997

FI,PP

Weapons are often found at a crime scene. Some have been fired, others are loaded and ready. By following basic weapons safety procedures you can decrease the risks associated with weapons handling. Whenever you enter a crime scene, you should first approach the victim and determine their needs and call for assistance. You should then secure the crime scene and note the position(s) of the firearms and other evidence prior to anything being removed. And finally, you will want to remove the weapons.

V0720 FIELD INTERROGATION: THE WITNESS INTERVIEW

10 min.

SCHOOLCRAFT COLLEGE 1992

IR,IT

This video will present you with an alternative technique for interviewing a witness. You will be provided with information concerning the reasons for a witness field interrogation, when and how to obtain a "statement", and how to use the statement during the field interrogation.

V0721 HUMAN RELATIONS

V0722 WE DID IT FOR SHAWNA

27 min.

IL DEPT OF TRANSPORT 1998

DA

Mr. Richard Meadows produced this powerful video documentary as a campaign to end D.U.I. crashes in Illinois after his daughter and mother-in-law were killed by a drunk driver and his wife was crippled. His extraordinary success in helping Illinois law enforcement agencies generate money to purchase in car video cameras, mobile radars, and lidar lasers has had a dramatic effect in lowering D.U.I. accident rates.

V0723 SURVIVING GROUND ASSAULTS

40 min.

PERSONAL SAFETY INST 1997

DT

If a fight starts, you're likely to end up on the ground. Here's how to fight back up-alive! Street-tested techniques for escaping when you're on your back, on your face, being choked...stopping kicks with heel/leg traps...displacing balance to disrupt an attack..."riding" an opponent...falling without injury, and much more. Ideal for self-study and partner workouts.

V0724 IMPACT WEAPONS

14 min.

SCHOOLCRAFT COLLEGE 1992

DT

Night sticks, police batons, or impact weapons, as they are presently referred to, are an important tool on a patrol officer's belt. When hand control "just isn't enough" and "deadly force is not justified" you need an intermediate weapon to fill the gap.

V0725 LEGAL UPDATES: DOMESTIC VIOLENCE - 1992

9 min. SCHOOLCRAFT COLLEGE 1992 DV,LP

Family violence is considered a major threat to the quality of family and community life in America. Violence is a learned reaction to anger or frustration, and that lesson is tragically taught to children when they are exposed to the bad examples of how some adults respond to displeasing events or situations. Unless the cycle is broken, the probability is that domestic violence will be perpetuated in future generations and at an escalated level of frequency and severity.

V0726 CULTURAL DIVERSITY

13 min. SCHOOLCRAFT COLLEGE 1993 PC

Having a basic understanding of the origins of a person's behavior and attitude will help you communicate effectively, react appropriately, and decrease misunderstandings that could potentially lead to violent conflicts. During this program, we will outline some of the basic cultural differences of Arab, African, and Hispanic Americans. Accepted normal behavior, speaking patterns, authority figures, and household arrangements will be discussed.

V0727 FIRST RESPONSE TO CRITICAL INCIDENTS

9 min. SCHOOLCRAFT COLLEGE 1993 CM,DT,PP

A critical incident may involve one or more people threatening the lives of others or themselves with guns or other weapons. When encountering a situation where there is a barricaded gunman with or without hostages or a suicidal subject, it is your responsibility to identify, isolate, and contain the threat. Foremost on your mind should be concern for the safety of your fellow officers, innocent bystanders, and yourself.

V0728 FIRST RESPONDER: CHILD ABUSE

12 min. SCHOOLCRAFT COLLEGE 1994 CA,IT

Most children are abused by people that they know and trust. People from all walks of life have been known to abuse infants, toddlers, and school-age children. As a law enforcement officer, you must follow the same strict guidelines as any other criminal investigation, no matter how credible or what social position the person suspected of child abuse is.

V0729 VEHICLE STOPS AND OFFICER BEHAVIOR

7 min. SCHOOLCRAFT COLLEGE 1994 DS,PP

Routine traffic stops are defined as any moving vehicle stop initiated by a law enforcement official because a driver has committed a basic traffic violation under the Michigan Motor Vehicle Code. These violations range from running red lights to improper lane changes and can occur within the city limits, on rural roads, or on freeways. Overall concerns for an officer's safety as well as his\her demeanor during routine traffic stops are the issues of current concern.

V0730 VIOLENT YOUTH GANGS

8 min. SCHOOLCRAFT COLLEGE 1994 GV,JC

A youth gang is defined by several characteristics including members that are under age 18. Members usually live in the same neighborhood and members are usually of the same ethnic group. And sometimes as with the rash of police suicides in New York City in the late 1990's the consequences can be tragic. Cop Counselors introduces three individuals who are working to change the stigma of cops seeking help. Stephanie Samuels is an independent therapist who works with officers through a referral system and she is helping teach a new generation of cops how to recognize the warning signs of stress. Bill Genet a former officer quit the force to start the Members Assistance Program (MAP,) as a response to skyrocketing suicide rates. He is on a national crusade to get the program recognized by police forces across the country. Finally Dr. Forrest Fulton runs a model Behavioral Sciences Unit in San Francisco that uses outside therapists peer support and advocacy to help police officers.

V0892 HARASSMENT IN THE WORKPLACE:EMPLOYEE AWARENESS

20 min. AMERICAN TRAINING RESOURCES 2000 SE,OD

This video addresses the more subtle areas concerning sexual harassment. It covers the issues of unwelcome advances epithets jokes suggestive objects pictures whistling and body gestures. Key points covered are: Sensitizes employees to the issues of sexual harassment; answers the common questions and doubts of those who have not received training on the subject; makes employees aware of the effects of sexual harassment on coworkers and the overall working environment of the company; uses, techniques employed in actual employee training such as sensitizing offenders to the feelings of others and role reversal.

V0893 DISASTER PREPAREDNESS

20 min. COASTAL TRAINING TECHNOLOGIES 2001 PC,SI,BO

The vendor (Coastal Technologies) was in the process of producing a video similar to this one at the time of the World Trade Center attack. After September 11, 2001 Coastal was kind enough to distribute this training video to its regular customers. It is broken down into three areas: Emergency Action Plans, Fire Drills and Package Bombs.

V0894 DISTRACTED DRIVING

18 min. AIMS MEDIA 2001 DS

Each year more than 40,000 people are killed in motor vehicle crashes and over 3 million are injured. While most of us are aware of the dangers associated with drunk driving or speeding we usually don't consider the risks of distracted driving. Distracted Driving discusses five major types of distractions: cell phones and other gadgets, children, aggressive drivers, drowsiness and traveling away from home. In each segment dramatic reenactments illustrate the dangers as well as the use of, safe driving techniques. Good judgement, alertness and patience are stressed as the basics of safe driving.

V0895 POLICE DOGS: THE BODY SITE SUIT

87 min. CANINE TRAINING SYSTEMS 2000 SI

This tape is full of dramatic suit work. Show how to make your K-9 a real man stopper.

V0896 BOMB THREAT

28 min. EMERGENCY FILM GROUP 1999 BO

Bomb Threat is an important and timely video designed for building management security officials, school administration, upper management teams, government officials, fire and police personnel and others who receive bomb threats or who may respond to bomb threats as a part of their duties. It describes how to prepare and implement a bomb incident plan and how to harden a site against becoming a potential target. Topics covered include: Receiving the call, establishing a chain of command, setting up the emergency operation center, communications planning, alerting procedures, evacuation procedures, searching for the bomb and what to do when the bomb squad arrives.

V0897 TERRORISM: FIRST RESPONSE

25 min. EMERGENCY FILM GROUP 1997 BO, HM

Basic elements of a disaster plan are outlined, including designating intervention, personnel profiling, potential terrorist targets, agencies to notify for support, and dealing with mass casualties. Four categories of terrorist weapons are studied: explosive, chemical, biological and radiological. Viewers will learn what issues must be considered in sizing up the situation, as well as, establishing control zones, conducting search and rescue operations, treating victims decontamination for radio logical, chemical incidents, and using the incident command and unified command systems. Other topics include: scene security, air monitoring, protective clothing, preserving evidence, and keeping alert for secondary terrorist devices.

V0898

INCIDENT COMMAND SYSTEM, THE

24 min.

EMERGENCY FILM GROUP 2000

IT,HM

An Incident Command System can be set up at any incident but is especially important when a situation occurs that is beyond the scope of a single response organization. In a complex response a plan must be in place to organize and manage the resources that will be necessary to effectively handle the incident. Topics include: Basic organizational structure of ICS, responsibilities of key players, relationship between federal, state, local and private agencies, unified command setting up the command post & emergency operations centers communications size up controlling the scene command staff ICS section & branches.
